Nebraska Volleyball on the Husker IMG Sports Network

The Husker IMG Sports Network will continue the strong tradition of broadcasting excellence in 2018, as it brings Husker volleyball to fans across Nebraska. Every volleyball match this season is available to a network of 29 radio stations that reaches every corner of the state. KBBK (107.3 FM) in Lincoln and KKCD (105.9 FM) in Omaha will serve as the flagship stations for volleyball.

The Husker IMG Sports Network, in its 24th year of producing and marketing the live broadcasts of University of Nebraska Athletics, extended and expanded its agreement with the University on June 13, 2008. Under the agreement, IMG College's Husker Sports Network will manage and market all rights associated with radio programming, coaches' TV and radio shows, program sales, sponsorship inventory and publication printing rights.

John Baylor enters his 25th year as the voice of the Nebraska volleyball program and brings his high-energy broadcasts throughout the state. He has covered all five of the Huskers' national title seasons. He is joined by color analyst Lauren West throughout the season.

The Husker IMG Sports Network also produces Sports Nightly, a daily, live call-in show focusing on NU athletics and other area sports. The show runs from 6 to 9 p.m. (Central) across the state. During the season, Coach Cook will join John Baylor for an hour call-in show on Husker volleyball. The show will typically be on Tuesday from 7 to 8 p.m. (Central).

Season Notes

Huskers Will Play School-Record 19 Home Matches

- Nebraska will play a school-record 19 regular-season home matches in 2018.
- Nine of the Huskers' 10 non-conference matches will be played at the Devaney Center this season. The only road trip will be up the road to Omaha where NU will face Creighton on Thursday, Sept. 6. The teams took a year off from the series last season after playing each other from 2014-16.
- The 2018 season marks the first time the Huskers won't play a non-conference match outside of Nebraska since 2007.

Pavan's Jersey to be Retired on Sept. 9

- Nebraska will retire the jersey of one of the most decorated players in NCAA history, Sarah Pavan, on Sunday, Sept. 9 at the Huskers' match against Iowa State. Pavan will also be inducted into the Nebraska Athletic Hall of Fame that weekend.
- The Kitchener, Ontario native is NU's all-time leader in kills (2,008) and kills per match (4.56). She is one of five players in NCAA history to be named a four-time first-team AVCA All-American, and she helped lead the Huskers to the 2006 NCAA Championship.
- Pavan will be the ninth volleyball player in school history to have her jersey retired.

Huskers Aiming for 250th Consecutive Sellout

- Nebraska enters the season with an NCAA women's record 234 consecutive regular-season sellouts. Should the Huskers continue to sell out, their 250th straight sellout would be on Friday, Nov. 2 against Penn State.

Cook Closing in on 700 Career Wins

- Nebraska head coach John Cook has a 692-142 career record entering the 2018 season and will become the 10th active Division I head coach to reach 700 career wins with the Huskers' eighth win of the season.
- A total of 26 Division I coaches all-time have reached the 700-win mark. Former Husker head coach Terry Pettit is currently tied for 27th on the all-time victories list with 694.

VERT Challenge Makes Its Way to Lincoln

- Nebraska will host the VERT Challenge to begin the season, which is in its fourth and final year of its cycle with the Huskers, Florida, Oregon and Texas.
- The Huskers are 3-3 all-time in the VERT Challenge. Nebraska lost both matches last season in Gainesville, Florida, 3-1 to Oregon and 3-2 to Florida. The Gators are 5-1 all-time in the tournament, while Texas is 3-3 and Oregon is 1-5.

Huskers and Gators Set for National Title Rematch

- Nebraska and Florida ended the 2017 season in the national championship match in Kansas City, a 3-1 Husker win, and they will begin the 2018 season against each other at the VERT Challenge in Lincoln. The two teams kick off their seasons on Friday, Aug. 24 at 6 p.m. at the Devaney Center.
- Nebraska is no stranger to national title rematches early the next season. After Nebraska beat Texas in the 2015 national title match, the teams had a rematch at the VERT Challenge in Eugene, Oregon in 2016. Nebraska won the rematch, 3-0, the same result as the 2015 championship match.

NCAA Tournament Format Stays the Same

- For the third straight year, the top remaining seed in each quadrant of the bracket after the second round will have the chance to host one of the four regionals. The Huskers were one of the four teams to host a regional in 2016, as they beat Penn State and Washington to advance to the NCAA semifinals for the second straight year. Nebraska went on the road in 2017 to win a regional at Lexington, Kentucky.
- The 2018 NCAA Championship will be played Dec. 13-15 at the Target Center in Minneapolis, Minnesota. It will be the second appearance of the finals in Minnesota. The last time Minnesota hosted was 1988.

Big Ten Conference

James E. Delany
Commissioner

Known as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten is home to a lineage of legendary names and an ongoing tradition of developing strong leaders. Even in its infancy, the conference established itself as the preeminent collection of institutions in the nation, where the pursuit of academic excellence prevailed as the definitive goal.

The history of the Big Ten traces back more than 120 years to the Palmer House hotel in Chicago, where on January 11, 1895, then-Purdue president James H. Smart and leaders from the University of Chicago, University of Illinois, University of Michigan, University of Minnesota, Northwestern University and University of Wisconsin set out to organize and develop principles for the regulation of intercollegiate athletics.

At that meeting, a blueprint for the administration of college athletics under the direction of appointed faculty representatives was outlined. The presidents' first known action "restricted eligibility for athletics to bonafide, full-time students who were not delinquent in their studies." That important legislation, along with other legislation that would follow in the coming years, served as the primary building block for intercollegiate athletics.

On February 8, 1896, one faculty member from each of those seven universities met at the same Palmer House and officially established the mechanics of the conference, which was officially incorporated as the "Intercollegiate Conference Athletic Association" in 1905.

Indiana University and the State University of Iowa became the eighth and ninth members in 1899. In 1908, Michigan briefly withdrew its membership, and in 1912 Ohio State University joined the conference, bringing its membership total back to nine. Upon Michigan's return in 1917, the conference was first referred to as the "Big Ten" by media members, and that name was eventually incorporated in 1987.

As the 1900s opened, faculty representatives established rules for intercollegiate athletics that were novel for the time. As early as 1904, the faculty approved legislation that required eligible athletes to meet entrance requirements and to have completed a full year's work, along with having one year of residence.

In 1901, the first Big Ten Championship event was staged when the outdoor track and field championships were held at the University of Chicago. The debut event marked what is now a staple of conference competition. Today, the Big Ten sponsors 28 official sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse over the last four years. Big Ten schools compete in a total of 42 different sports, furthering the conference's commitment to broad-based programming and providing more participation opportunities than any conference in the country.

One of the conference's proudest traditions began in 1902 when Michigan took on Stanford in the Rose Bowl, the nation's first bowl game. Big Ten teams only appeared in Pasadena twice before the conference signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl game with permanent conference affiliations. But Michigan's appearance in 1902 cultivated a relationship that has endured for more than a century. In January 2014, Michigan State defeated Stanford in the 100th Rose Bowl Game.

Coupling the academic goals set forth by the leaders of the charter members of the conference and their steadfast commitment to athletics, the conference instituted the Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915. It is awarded annually by each conference institution to a student of the graduating class who has attained the greatest proficiency in scholarship and athletics. For more than 100 years, it has been the most prestigious honor a student competing in Big Ten athletics can receive.

In 1922, Major John L. Griffith became the conference's first "Commissioner of Athletics." Griffith was the first of five men to assume the role of commissioner in the conference's history, followed by Kenneth L. "Tug" Wilson in 1945, Bill Reed in 1961, Wayne Duke in 1971 and current commissioner James E. Delany in 1989.

After nearly 30 years with 10 members, the conference consolidated to nine schools when the University of Chicago formally withdrew its membership in 1946. Michigan State College (now Michigan State University) was added to the Big Ten three years later, bringing the number of affiliated conference schools to 10 once again.

In 1955, the Big Ten formulated a revenue-sharing model designed to pool all football television rights of its members and share those proceeds equally. The conference and its members continue to utilize a revenue-sharing model, dividing media rights, bowl payouts and other profits among all conference institutions.

While academics have always played an integral role in the conference, presidents of the Big Ten member institutions formalized the primacy of academics with the establishment of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation) in 1958. The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all Big Ten universities. Annually, the schools currently constituting the Big Ten Academic Alliance produced over $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

In one of Duke's first actions as commissioner, he oversaw the adoption of the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, designed to study conference programs and make suggestions which would further Big Ten objectives. The Advisory Commission enlists former students that competed in Big Ten athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.

In 1981, the conference presidents and chancellors endorsed a proposal that enabled universities to affiliate their women's intercollegiate programs with the conference, and the first conference championships for women were staged that fall. The Big Ten was the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.

In December of 1989, the conference agreed in principle to invite Pennsylvania State University for membership. On June 4, 1990, the Council of Presidents officially voted to integrate Penn State into the conference, giving the Big Ten 11 members.

In 2004, the Big Ten implemented a pilot program of instant replay for college football. Following the season, the conference forwarded replay proposals to the NCAA regarding the future use of instant replay, where it approved country-wide testing in 2005. In 2006, the NCAA approved the use of instant replay for all conferences.

In 2006, Delany announced the creation of the first conference-owned television network, a 20-year agreement with FOX Networks to create what would become the Big Ten Network (BTN). Launched on Aug. 30, 2007, BTN now produces more than 1,500 events across all platforms each year. BTN is in more than 60 million homes in the U.S. and Canada via the nation's major cable, satellite and telco providers and more than 300 additional cable operators across the country. BTN2Go is the digital extension of BTN, delivering live and on-demand programming to computers, smart phones and tablets and also is accessible outside the U.S., Canada and the Caribbean via BTN2Go International.

On June 11, 2010, the Big Ten Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C) approved a formal membership application by the University of Nebraska, expanding the conference to 12 institutions. Nebraska officially joined the Big Ten on July 1, 2011.

The conference expanded its footprint further in 2012 when the COP/C approved formal membership applications from the University of Maryland and Rutgers University on November 19 and 20, respectively. Maryland and Rutgers became official Big Ten members on July 1, 2014, giving the conference almost 9,500 students participating in intercollegiate athletics and more than 11,000 participation opportunities on 350 teams.

Since opening in the fall of 2013, the Big Ten conference center hosts more than 300 meetings annually for member institutions, Big Ten Academic Alliance (formerly CIC) related committees and coaches' groups. The headquarters also features an interactive digital museum - the Big Ten Experience - which brings the conference's storied academic and athletic history to life. For more information on the Big Ten Experience, go to bigten.org.

In June 2014, the Big Ten opened a second office in New York City, featuring both office and meeting space in Midtown Manhattan. Big Ten staff members are based in the New York City office to provide expanded coverage and service, while other conference and institutional administrators utilize the space as necessary when conducting business on the East Coast. The Big Ten and its member institutions also have access to satellite office space in Washington, D.C.

Delany and his staff work to meet the educational needs of students competing in intercollegiate athletics to allow them to excel in all areas of their lives. The conference office manages 28 different championships and tournaments, offers legislative and compliance services, oversees the production and distribution of more than 1,400 events annually, provides staff services to coaching and administrative personnel and services media and fans interest for information on the Big Ten.

More than 120 years after its inception, the Big Ten remains a national leader in intercollegiate athletics on and off the field. Big Ten programs have combined to win more than 450 team and 1,800 individual national championships, consistently taking home individual honors for athletic and academic accomplishments and fulfilling the Big Ten's mission of academic achievement and athletic success.

Media Information

The 2018 Nebraska Volleyball Media Guide is designed to assist the media in its coverage of Husker volleyball. Additional information, including releases, photographs and videotapes may be obtained by contacting the Nebraska Athletic Communications Office at (402) 472-2263.

Media Credentials

All requests for press, broadcast, photo and parking credentials for Nebraska volleyball home matches should be directed to the Nebraska Athletic Communications Office, One Memorial Stadium, P.O. Box 880123, Lincoln, NE 68588-0123. Requests must be made via email.

As a general rule, working space is allocated on the following basis: (1) daily newspaper and wire-service writers covering for next-day publication; (2) radio and television personnel for broadcast origination; (3) sports editors of Nebraska daily newspapers; (4) official school student daily newspaper, one seat only; (5) approved special coverage; (6) press and TV working photographers.

Media Will Call

Media passes that are not mailed may be picked up with identification at the will call window outside the north entrance of the Devaney Center, beginning 90 minutes prior to the start of the match.

Media Parking

To request a media parking pass, please email the Nebraska Athletic Communications Office at npohlen@huskers.com.

Player Interviews

All media requests for interviews with Nebraska volleyball players should be directed to Nate Pohlen (npohlen@huskers.com) in the Nebraska Athletic Communications Office, at least 24 hours in advance. The best times for in-season interviews are at the weekly Monday morning press conference or after practice. Nebraska is tentatively scheduled to practice from 3 to 5:45 p.m. during the season.

Coach Cook Interviews

The best time to reach Coach John Cook is at his weekly press conference preceding Coach Mike Riley's football press conferences on Mondays on the sixth floor of the Don Bryant Media Facility at Memorial Stadium. Coach Cook also has select availability after practice during the season. Interviews with Coach Cook should be scheduled through the Nebraska Athletic Communications Office by emailing Nate Pohlen at npohlen@huskers.com.

Postgame Interviews

Nebraska's locker room is closed to the media at home and on the road. For home matches, Nebraska's postgame news conference will be held following a brief cooling off period in the designated postgame interview room off the southeast corner of the Devaney Center court. The opposing team is housed in the visitor's locker room, located off the hallway at the northwest corner of the playing floor and will be available following the cooling off period. Make requests for opposing players and coaches through the visiting SID.

On the road, Coach Cook and players will be available at the site immediately following the match. Cook also will speak on his radio program after each match.

Press Row Location

Press row for Nebraska volleyball matches is located in section C-10. Television crews broadcasting live may shoot from either end on the court. Prior to matches, game notes and roster sheets will be available for working media in the media work room located across the hall from the press conference room. Media can use the room prior to, during and after the game to write and send stories. Phone and free wireless internet will be available in the media work room, along with limited Ethernet lines.

Photo Areas

For photographers, courtside areas have been set aside along the end line on the north and south side of the Devaney Center, next to the Nebraska Courtside Club. Additional still photographer areas are located throughout the Devaney Center. Contact the Nebraska Athletic Communications Office at (402) 472-2263 or Athletic Department Photographer Scott Bruhn at (402) 472-3290 for specific locations.

Media Services

Pregame notes, programs and media guides will be provided before each match. Play-by-play sheets and final statistics will be distributed. Starting approximately 60 minutes before first serve, refreshments will be served in the southwest corner of the Devaney Center main level.

Radio/Television Broadcast Space

Requests for live radio and television broadcast space and credentials should be made to Nebraska Athletic Communications, One Memorial Stadium, P.O. Box 880123, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, NE, 68588-0123, telephone (402) 472-2263. If statisticians are needed, please contact the communications office at least one week in advance.

Broadcast Rights

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln and Husker Sports Network own exclusive radio broadcast rights to all of the University of Nebraska volleyball matches. Other than the Husker Sports Network and the University of Nebraska student station (KRNU), the only stations or networks that will be allowed to broadcast Nebraska matches from the Devaney Center are those that have rights to broadcast games played by the opposing team. All radio stations and networks broadcasting from the Devaney Center must have permission from the University of Nebraska and are subject to a rights fee. Any representative of a radio station or network that has not purchased such rights shall not air live match action or description of any match while it is in progress. Only stations that have purchased broadcast rights may install telephones on press row, or use telephones on press row for reporting on matches. By accepting media credentials, representatives of stations and networks that have not purchased broadcast rights signify their agreement to the above stipulations.

Internet Access

High-speed wireless internet access is available on press row for Nebraska volleyball matches.

Broadcast Connections

An Ethernet and telephone line are provided on press row for visiting radio broadcasts. Visiting broadcasters interested in using a phone line should contact Mike Elliott of the Husker Sports Network at (402) 430-7312 or Mike.Elliott@img.com.

Email Access

Match recaps will be emailed to media outlets following every match. Contact the Nebraska Athletic Communications Office at (402) 472-2263 to have your name added to the post-match email list.

Coach Cook's Philosophy: Dream Big

When John Cook took over the reins of the Nebraska volleyball program in 2000, the challenge facing him was daunting. Cook replaced one of the sport's legendary coaches in Terry Pettit, who won 694 matches and guided the Huskers to 18 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and six national semifinals. Cook, who left an emerging power in Wisconsin to guide the tradition-rich Husker program, had his own vision for Nebraska volleyball. He saw a program that had even more potential to grow.

His goals included consistently selling out home matches at the NU Coliseum, expanding the media exposure for his program and most importantly, continuing the tradition of athletic and academic excellence started by Pettit nearly a quarter of a century earlier. His vision catapulted the program to a new phase in 2013, as the Devaney Center underwent a $20 million renovation and became the new home for Nebraska volleyball. Moving to the Devaney Center increased the capacity crowd for Nebraska volleyball matches from 4,125 at the Coliseum to nearly 8,000 in addition to 400 standing-room-only tickets. In addition, five suites that give a private and expansive view of the action were built on the south side of the building and student seating was drastically increased.

Cook's vision is for the Huskers to remain at the forefront of college volleyball to enhance the sport at both the local and national levels. The Huskers have done just that, winning two of the last three NCAA Championships under Cook and leading the nation in attendance for the past five seasons. In 2017, Cook's Huskers put together one of the most remarkable seasons in school history. Despite losing three AVCA All-Americans to graduation, both assistant coaches to Division I head coaching jobs, and entering the season with eight first-year players in the program, the Huskers defied all odds to win the program's fifth national title. Nebraska dropped its first two matches of the season but went 32-2 the rest of the way, including a 19-match win streak to end the season. The Huskers avenged one of their early-season losses with a 3-1 victory over Florida in the title match in Kansas City in front of an NCAA Tournament record crowd of 18,516.

The national title capped off a dream season for Cook that also included a Big Ten Championship, a Big Ten Coach of the Year accolade and induction to the AVCA Hall of Fame. Cook joined Russ Rose as the only coaches to win four national titles since the NCAA Tournament expanded to 64 teams in 1998. He also became the fourth coach in NCAA history to win four national titles and the third to win four national championships at one school.

The fan support continues to be unrivaled in the sport, as the Huskers have sold out 234 consecutive regular-season matches since 2001, the longest sellout streak in NCAA women's athletics. Since the move to the Devaney Center in 2013, the Huskers have led the nation in attendance every season, including an NCAA-record 8,210 fans per match in 2016.

Cook saw the long-range potential of building the audience across the state. He also believed Nebraska could shine by hosting the sport's championship in the largest setting college volleyball had ever seen.

When others saw risks, Cook saw opportunities.

In 2006, Cook's dream was realized, as Husker Nation had an opportunity to see Nebraska raise the bar in college volleyball. From record-setting, sold-out crowds at the Qwest Center Omaha, to a team that maximized its potential in winning the school's third national title, the Huskers enjoyed a remarkable season.

The Huskers entered the 2006 campaign with many questions, as they were forced to replace three All-Americans, including AVCA National Player-of-the-Year Christina Houghtelling. With four first-year starters on the court, including freshmen at setter and middle blocker, and sky-high expectations with the NCAA Championship in Omaha for the first time, 2006 shaped up to be Cook's toughest coaching job to date. Nebraska took on all challenges head-on, going 33-1 and becoming only the third team in NCAA history to be ranked No. 1 the entire season. The Huskers went on the road and overcame a 2-0 deficit to defeat Minnesota to reach the national semifinals, marking the first time that Nebraska had won a regional outside the state. That victory set the stage for a watershed moment in college volleyball. Behind sellout crowds of over 17,000, the Huskers captured the school's third national title with victories over No. 4 UCLA and No. 2 Stanford. Four players earned AVCA All-America honors, including Sarah Pavan, who became NU's first Honda-Broderick Cup winner.

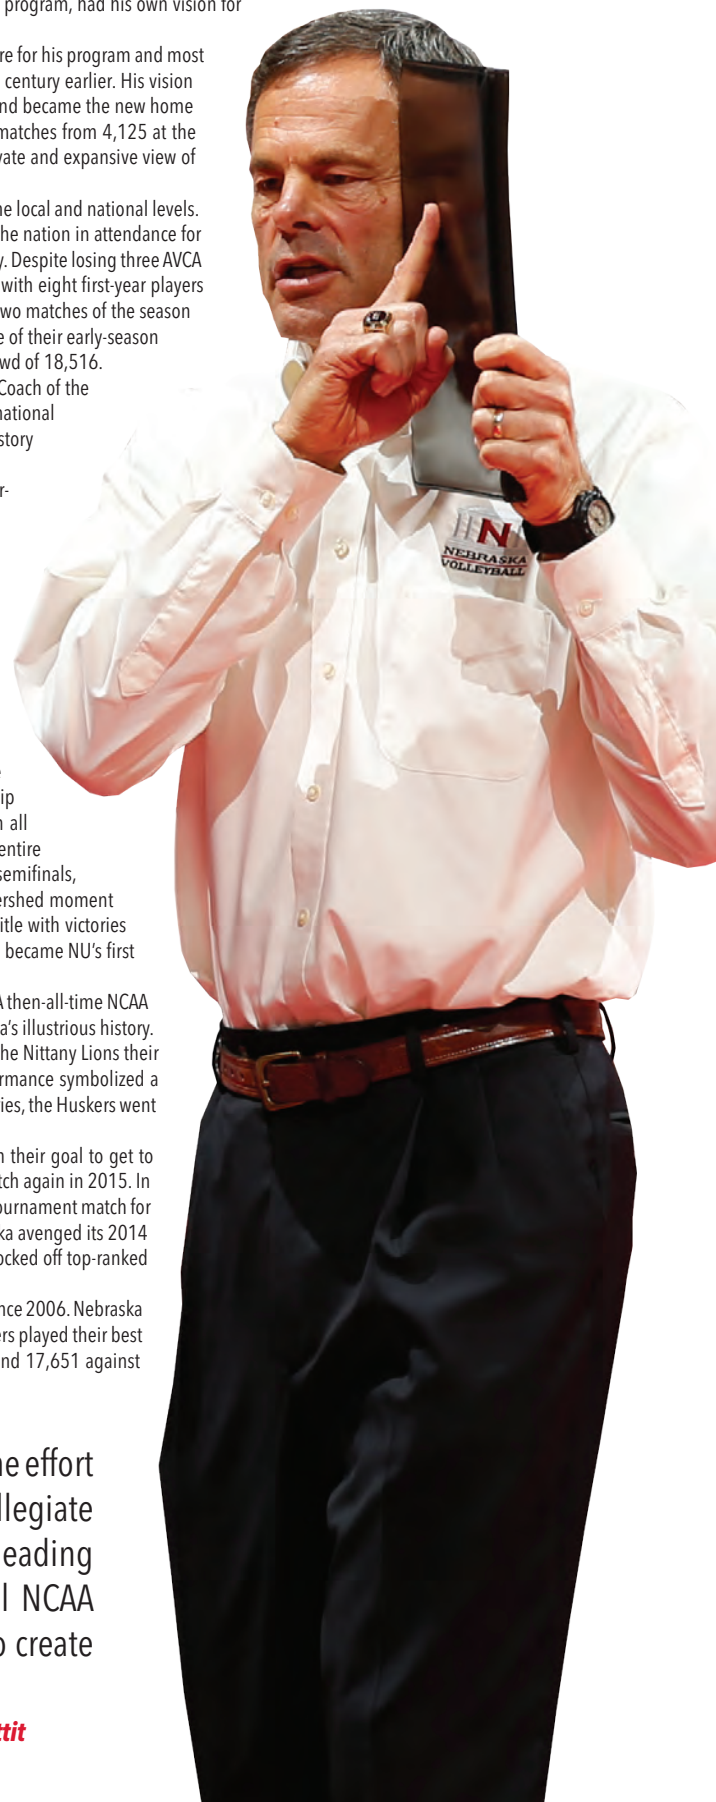

Two years later, the NCAA Championship returned to Omaha with another Husker team taking center stage. A then-all-time NCAA attendance record of 17,430 traveled through a winter storm to witness one of the greatest matches in Nebraska's illustrious history. After dropping the first two sets to No. 1 Penn State, Nebraska fought back, winning the next two sets to hand the Nittany Lions their only set losses of the 2008 season. Although the Huskers were unable to complete the comeback, the performance symbolized a never-say-quit attitude that fueled the team's success. Despite losing a pair of performers to season-ending injuries, the Huskers went 31-3 and won their fifth consecutive conference title.

For the third time, the final four returned to Omaha in 2015. And once again, the Huskers made good on their goal to get to Omaha. After home losses to Minnesota and Wisconsin in October, the Huskers dialed in and did not lose a match again in 2015. In fact, only one of the Huskers' final 16 wins went five sets, and Nebraska did not need five sets to win any NCAA Tournament match for the first time during a championship run. After opening-round wins against Harvard and Wichita State, Nebraska avenged its 2014 regional final loss to BYU by sweeping the Cougars in the Lexington (Kentucky) Regional. The Huskers then knocked off top-ranked Washington, 3-1, in the regional final to reach their destination: Omaha.

But the job wasn't done, as the Huskers turned their goal toward winning the national title for the first time since 2006. Nebraska blew past Kansas, 3-1, in the NCAA Semifinal to set up a winner-take-all match against Texas. The inspired Huskers played their best match of the season to sweep the Longhorns. The attendance for both NU matches (17,551 against Kansas and 17,651 against Texas) set then-NCAA all-time records.

“What sets John Cook apart from other exceptional coaches is the effort he has made in trying to make women's volleyball a premier collegiate sport. He has done this by promoting the sport on television, leading the country in attendance, by hosting regional and national NCAA events, by encouraging his peers to do everything possible to create an atmosphere that showcases women's volleyball.”

-AVCA Hall of Fame Coach Terry Pettit

In 2016, the Huskers won the Big Ten title for the first time since 2011 and finished with a 31-3 record for the program's best winning percentage (.912) since 2008. Nebraska advanced to the NCAA Semifinals for the second straight season. Cook was rewarded for his team's season, as he was named the Big Ten Coach of the Year and the AVCA North Region Coach of the Year. Nebraska's four AVCA All-Americans were their most since 2007, and Kadie Rolfsen became the 19th CoSIDA Academic All-America selection in Cook's tenure at Nebraska.

Consistent excellence has been a hallmark of Cook's Nebraska squads. Since taking over the program in 2000, Cook has guided the Huskers to four national titles, eight NCAA Semifinal appearances, nine Big 12 titles and three Big Ten championships. His teams have compiled a 531-69 record, owning the nation's top winning percentages (.885) during his tenure. Cook has also excelled against ranked teams, compiling a 180-55 record. The Huskers have appeared in an NCAA Regional 23 times in the last 24 years, including 17 of 18 during Cook's tenure.

With Cook at the helm, Nebraska has produced numerous individual honors, including nine U.S. National Team members, five Olympians, a Honda-Broderick Cup winner, three AVCA Division I National Players of the Year, two NCAA Top Ten Award winners, 52 AVCA All-Americans, three CoSIDA Academic All-Americans of the Year, 19 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, one Big Ten Player of the Year, six Big 12 Players of the Year and three Big 12 Co-Players of the Year. Husker volleyball players combined for 40 first-team All-Big 12 awards and 61 academic All-Big 12 certificates in Cook's tenure, while the Huskers have earned 22 All-Big Ten honors and 43 academic All-Big Ten accolades since 2011.

Cook's accomplishments haven't gone unnoticed, as he is a two-time AVCA National Coach of the Year, earning the prestigious honor in 2000 and 2005, and a seven-time conference coach of the year, including his selection as Big Ten Coach of the Year in 2016 and 2017. He is one of only four active coaches - and one of six all-time - to be a two-time AVCA National Coach of the Year and was honored in 2008 by USA Volleyball, receiving its All-Time Great Coach Award. In 2017, Cook was inducted into the AVCA Hall of Fame, joining Pettit as former Husker head coaches in the hall.

Cook has also been instrumental in helping to expand the program's visibility throughout the state and the Midwest. Nebraska played a regular-season match in North Platte in 2004, and the team has played exhibition matches in Kearney, Scottsbluff, Ogallala, Wayne, Grand Island and Norfolk over the last decade. In addition, Cook's efforts have helped Nebraska enjoy one of the most extensive multi-media packages in the country, as every match is carried live on a state-wide radio network and nearly every contest is shown either live on television or streamed live on the Internet.

"It is a reflection of Nebraska volleyball and the program, and not about one person or one player," Cook said when accepting the AVCA Coach-of-the-Year Award in 2005. "We're trying to be a leader in the sport. We're trying to take risks and dream big, and fortunately I'm surrounded by a lot of people who have that vision. I'm really proud of what we're doing to try and enhance the sport."

Cook immediately started to create his own legacy after taking over for Pettit. In his first season at the helm, Cook was named the AVCA National Coach of the Year after guiding the Huskers to a 34-0 record and the 2000 NCAA Championship. The Huskers, who became just the second team in NCAA history to cap an undefeated season with a national title, were ranked No. 1 in the AVCA/USA Today Top 25 poll for 14 straight weeks. Greichaly Cepero earned AVCA National Player-of-the-Year honors. Three Huskers claimed AVCA All-America certificates, and five Nebraska players were named to the All-Big 12 teams. Laura Pilakowski earned CoSIDA Academic All-America honors, and a conference-best seven Huskers earned academic All-Big 12 recognition.

Cook also brings Olympic and championship experience to the Husker staff. As the first assistant coach with the U.S. Men's National Volleyball team, Cook aided the United States to a bronze medal in the 1992 Olympic Games in Barcelona. The team's defensive coordinator, he was also in charge of scouting and supervising the team's flexibility, strength and conditioning programs. For his Olympic coaching experience, Cook was honored in June of 1993 at the NACDA/USOC Collegiate Coaches Recognition Awards Luncheon. He also served as the head coach of the Women's National Volleyball Training Team in 2004.

During his first tenure at Nebraska (1989-91), the Huskers advanced to the NCAA semifinals two of the three seasons, including a runner-up finish in 1989. Nebraska went 36-0 in conference play, capturing three Big Eight Conference titles. During that time, he served as Pettit's recruiting coordinator, chief scout and strength and conditioning coordinator. Cook was also the liaison with the academic advising center.

In the U.S. Olympic Festival competition, Cook served as head coach of the bronze medal-winning North team in 1989 and was also an assistant coach with the third-place West team in 1987.

A co-founder of the San Diego Volleyball Club, Cook served as a coach with the club from 1986 to 1988. The club won two Southern California Regional Championships and finished among the final four teams twice in the USVBA Junior Olympics for girls 18 and under.

Cook also served as the head assistant coach at the University of California-San Diego from 1983 to 1984, where he aided the Tritons to an NCAA Division III national championship in 1984 and a second-place national finish in 1983. Cook's coaching credentials also include leading Francis Parker High School in San Diego to two California state championships. During his six-year coaching stint from 1981 to 1988, he had an overall record of 162-18, including a 90-match winning streak.

A well-known speaker on volleyball skills, Cook travels around the nation participating in clinics. During his stay at Wisconsin, he served as the host of the Badger Coaching Symposium every spring.

A graduate of the University of San Diego, Cook earned his bachelor's degree in history in 1979. He completed his master's degree in teaching and coaching effectiveness from San Diego State in 1991.

Cook and his wife Wendy, a former two-time All-America setter at San Diego State, are the parents of two children, Lauren and Taylor. Lauren completed her senior season at Nebraska in 2012.

Q&A With Coach Cook

What is your coaching philosophy?

There are four things that come to mind. No. 1, I see myself as a teacher. It was always my dream to be a teacher, and coaching is teaching. No. 2, next to my family and my faith, the people involved with Nebraska volleyball are the most important thing in my life.

Third we like to recruit great athletes and are flexible enough to create a system that takes advantage of the strengths of the players in our program, so our players can reach their full potential. How can we make each athlete the best volleyball player they can be? That's the question we try to answer. Finally, our players are committed to academic excellence and becoming complete student-athletes.

What do you enjoy most about coaching at Nebraska?

There are two things that make coaching at Nebraska so special. First, it is the passion of the people across the state for our team. There is a love affair between our players and the fans across the state.

Second, is that our players are great young women who work hard, make great choices and are excellent students. In both 2006 and 2015, we won an NCAA title, as well as the Life Skills Award for the athletic department. We have a group of people who are committed to giving back to the community and understand that there is more to college life than volleyball.

When you are recruiting a potential student-athlete, what are Nebraska's biggest selling points?

I think the best thing for a recruit to do is see our team play. We play at a high level, but what may be most important, is how we play. It's a very exciting brand of volleyball based on great athletes moving very quickly and transitioning very fast. We've always had a reputation of taking great athletes and training them to become exceptional volleyball players.

We have a great academic tradition with our academic support staff, the Hewitt Center and our Student Life Complex. We lead the nation in academic All-America honors, NCAA Top Ten Award winners and the majority of our players go on to graduate school following their playing careers.

I think another important factor is the exposure our program receives. Our goal is to be on the cutting edge. We are one of the only programs in the country that has its own volleyball radio network, and nearly all of our matches are either televised or streamed online. This gives us opportunities to connect with our fans, and has played a major role in our sellout streak.

Our school's rich volleyball tradition over the years also plays an important role in recruiting. In many cases, people know they were meant to be here.

What do you look for in a recruit?

Academically we have a tradition of great student-athletes. Because the program's emphasis is on being accountable, the program attracts people who have already been successful in the classroom. But we've also taken some people who were merely good students and helped them become great students.

In addition to looking for great student-athletes, the players we attract to Nebraska are ones who not only have the athletic ability to be successful, but also are highly competitive. They don't shy away from challenges, whether it is in practices or in matches because they know it will allow them to reach their full potential as a player.

We are also in a unique situation at Nebraska where our student-athletes have a platform to make a difference in people's lives. We look for people who are going to embrace that opportunity and give back to the community.

How does Nebraska help develop players for their post-collegiate careers?

At Nebraska, we believe that the program we put in place gives our players a chance to play beyond their college career. When I was with the men's national team for the 1992 Olympics, I got an understanding of what it takes to be the best in the world. We've tried to implement that at Nebraska and call it Training the Whole Athlete.

It just doesn't mean we are going to make them a great volleyball player. Obviously, we are going to do that and our program's success reflects that. We are going to train them mentally on how to compete at the highest level and continue on if they elect to do so. It is also about getting them to understand the self-discipline it takes to work in the weight room, understanding their bodies and knowing how to take care of them in areas such as flexibility, recovery and nutrition.

Our mission in this program is two-fold. One is prepare them if they want to have a professional career. Second, many of our former players are going into coaching, and they are leaving Nebraska armed with lots of information. If they can go into coaching, they have the ability to make a tremendous impact on the lives of other people with that information. It is a two-fold mission, and we feel that our program has a great understanding and implements it as well as anyone in the country in a college setting.

What do you hope student-athletes take from their years with the Nebraska volleyball program?

First, we hope they have the opportunity to play professionally. We've had countless former players play around the world and that is a testament to their hard work in reaching their playing potential. Another way we measure that is by how many of them go into coaching after they graduate. Over 50 percent of our former players are in the coaching ranks, whether it is at the college, high school or club level.

The second thing we want them to understand is the importance of giving back. At Nebraska, our players are viewed by the public and kids in the state with almost a rock star status. What we hope they learned at Nebraska is to use that platform to create a positive message and take that lesson throughout their lives.

KAYLA BANWARTH

Assistant Coach / 2nd Season / Nebraska (2012)

At Nebraska

- Assistant Coach (2017-present)

Other Coaching Experience

- Volunteer Coach, Pepperdine (Men, 2015-16)

Education

- University of Nebraska-Lincoln (2012)
Bachelor's Degree, English

Kayla Banwarth joined the Nebraska volleyball coaching staff as an assistant in January 2017. Banwarth completed an illustrious playing career for the Huskers in 2010 before embarking on a professional playing career that saw her win an Olympic bronze medal with the U.S. National Team, as well as an FIVB World Championship.

Banwarth finished her professional career with the U.S. National Team at the Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro in 2016. A U.S. National Team libero since 2011, Banwarth spent two years as a volunteer assistant coach for the Pepperdine men's volleyball team prior to joining the Huskers.

Banwarth oversees the Husker liberos and passers while leading NU's recruiting efforts. In her first season as a Husker assistant, Nebraska won the 2017 NCAA Championship and repeated as Big Ten champions with a 32-4 overall record and 19-1 mark in conference play. Under her guidance, Kelly Hunter was named the NCAA Championship co-most outstanding player, an AVCA first-team All-American and the Big Ten Setter of the Year. She was also the PrepVolleyball.com Player of the Year, while libero Kenzie Maloney was a PrepVolleyball.com first-team All-American and an NCAA Championship All-Tournament selection.

After walking on at Nebraska in 2007, Banwarth became the starting libero midway through her freshman season and remained in that role through 2010, receiving All-Big 12 honorable mention as a junior and senior. She led the Huskers to the NCAA Semifinals in 2008 and to three Big 12 titles. She was Nebraska's all-time career leader in digs with 1,706 until 2016. Banwarth was also a two-time academic All-Big 12 selection and a three-time Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week.

Banwarth played professionally overseas in Azerbaijan but focused strictly on the U.S. National Team and coaching at Pepperdine in 2015 and 2016. She was named the Best Receiver at the 2015 NORCECA Championship and helped Team USA win gold there and at the FIVB World Grand Prix in 2016. In 2014 she aided Team USA to the FIVB World Championship, the first gold medal for the U.S. at a major tournament. In 2016 Banwarth anchored the squad at the Olympic Games in Rio, helping the U.S. to the bronze medal.

In 2013 Banwarth was named USA Volleyball's Female Indoor Most Improved Player of the Year, and in 2012 and 2013 she led the team to gold medals in consecutive Pan American Cups. Also in 2013, she was the runner-up in the Best Digger category at the FIVB World Grand Champions Cup after posting 3.19 digs per set. In her first international competition in 2011, Banwarth helped USA to a bronze medal at the Pan American Games.

Banwarth joined the Pepperdine men's volleyball staff as a volunteer assistant coach in December 2015 and coached for two seasons. In her first season, Pepperdine went 13-11, and she helped lead the Waves' back line to rank 36th nationally with 7.69 digs per set.

A native of Dubuque, Iowa, Banwarth attended Wahlert Catholic High School before her Husker career. She graduated from UNL in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in English.

"I really like the fact that while Kayla was training with the U.S. National Team, she found the time to volunteer coach for the Pepperdine men's volleyball team," Head Coach John Cook said. "So not only did she play at Nebraska and for Team USA, she gained experience under Karch Kiraly and Marv Dunphy, two of the best coaches in the United States.

"Whenever I have a chance to hire a former player to coach at Nebraska volleyball, it's something I strongly consider because they understand what this program is about. Kayla's strengths are her journey to Nebraska as a walk-on, having a great career at Nebraska and going on to beat out all the other liberos in the United States to become one of the top liberos in the world. Kayla's strengths will allow her to develop quickly and take over Dani Busboom Kelly's role in recruiting and coaching our liberos and passers."

JAYLEN REYES

Assistant Coach / 1st Season / BYU (2015)

At Nebraska

- Assistant Coach (2018-present)

Other Coaching Experience

- Assistant Coach, BYU (Men, 2016-18)
- Assistant Coach, SCVA High Performance Team (2016-17)

Education

- Brigham Young University (2015)
Bachelor's Degree, Exercise Science

Jaylen Reyes joined the Nebraska volleyball program as an assistant coach in March 2018. Reyes coaches the Husker middle blockers and defense while helping coordinate game plans and scouting reports and assisting with other positions.

Reyes, a former BYU libero, was an assistant coach for the BYU men's volleyball team from 2016-18. He handled player development and was the recruiting coordinator for the Cougars, who reached the NCAA Championship match in 2016 and 2017 and were NCAA semifinalists in 2018. A native of Honolulu, Hawaii, Reyes is the son of Tino Reyes, who was the head women's volleyball coach at the University of Hawaii at Hilo from 2010-15 and spent 17 years as associate head coach on the Hawaii men's volleyball coaching staff.

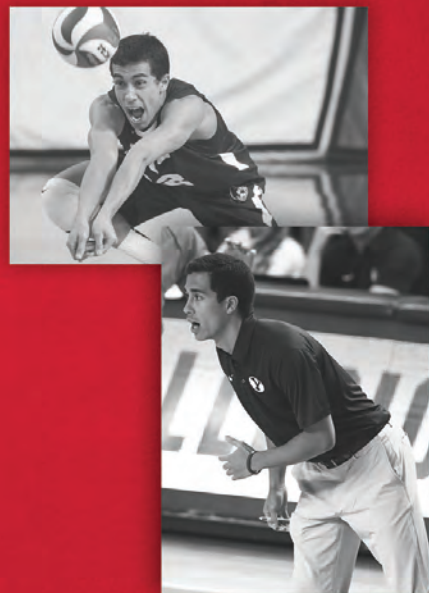

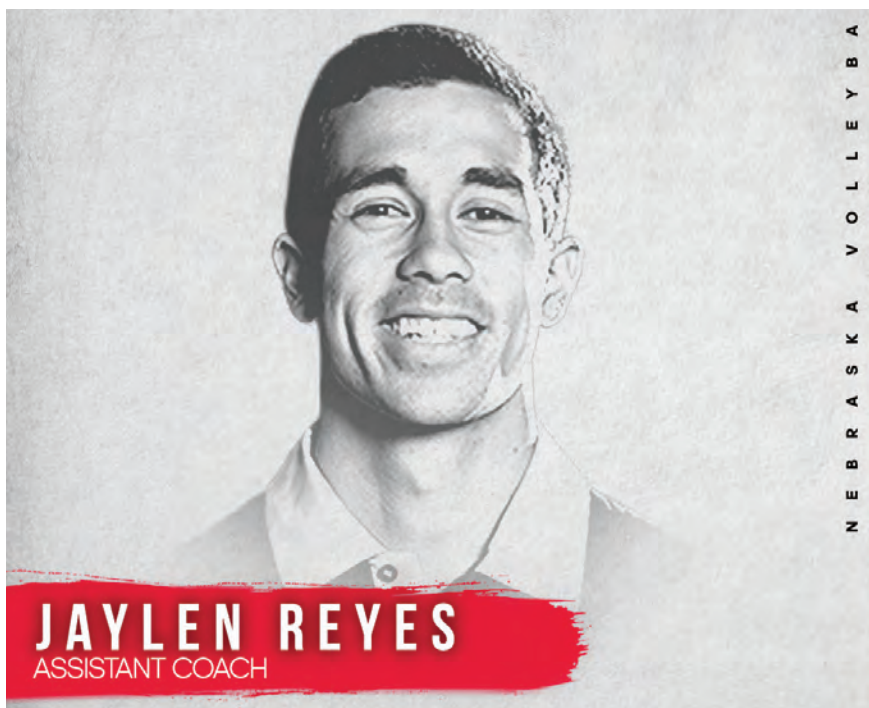

Reyes helped lead BYU to a 26-5 (16-2 MPSF) record in 2017, winning a share of the conference regular-season title. The Cougars reached the national championship match for a second-consecutive season. BYU went 27-4 (19-3 MPSF) in 2016 - Reyes' first season on staff - also winning the conference title and playing in the national final. In 2018, the Cougars reached the national semifinals once again and finished with a 22-7 overall record while winning the MPSF tournament title. Reyes coached four AVCA All-Americans in each of his three seasons at BYU.

Reyes' other coaching experience includes serving as the lead coach at the Gold Medal Squared Clinic since 2014, and as an assistant coach with the SCVA High Performance Team in the International Youth Division at the USA Volleyball High Performance Championships, winning silver in 2017 and bronze in 2016.

Reyes received his bachelor's degree from BYU in exercise science in 2015. He was the starting libero for the Cougars from 2012-15 and received AVCA All-America honorable mention in 2015. Reyes helped his team to back-to-back MPSF regular-season and tournament titles and NCAA Tournament appearances in 2013-14. Reyes is BYU's all-time rally-scoring era leader in sets played (431) and is second in career digs (762).

"After interviewing all of our candidates and putting them through an extensive interview process, Jaylen separated himself from the others," Head Coach John Cook said. "Jaylen is a second-generation coach. His dad, Tino, coached for years, so Jaylen has grown up in a gym. He was hired to coach at BYU a few days after completing his playing career. Coaching volleyball is in his DNA. We wanted someone who was willing to crawl here just like Andy Dufresne in the movie, 'The Shawshank Redemption'. Our players and the Husker Nation will love his energy, passion and ability to teach the game."

LINDSAY PETERSON

Director of Operations / 13th Season / Nebraska (2003)

Coaching Experience

- Director of Operations, Nebraska (2006-present)
- Assistant Coach, Northern Colorado (2005-06)
- Assistant Coach, Virginia Tech (2004)

Education

- Nebraska (2003), Bachelor's Degree
Business Administration

Former Husker volleyball standout Lindsay Peterson is in her 13th year as director of operations for the Nebraska volleyball program. A former Husker volleyball captain and one of the greatest defensive players in school history, Peterson was hired in 2006 after serving assistant coaching stints at Northern Colorado and Virginia Tech.

At Nebraska, Peterson handles a variety of duties for the Husker volleyball team, including team travel, budgeting, coordinating tournaments and camps and assisting visiting teams. She also serves as a liaison for volleyball support units, including facilities and events, media relations, marketing, compliance, HuskerVision, the ticket office, alumni and The Match Club. She also provides radio color commentary during Nebraska's road matches. In addition to her duties on the Husker staff, Peterson has served as a club coach for Nebraska Juniors, helping the 15-and-under team to a USA Junior Olympic National title in 2010.

Peterson came to Nebraska after serving as an assistant coach in the Northern Colorado program from March of 2005 to July of 2006. At Northern Colorado, she worked extensively with the setters and liberos and helped with recruiting in the Midwest. In 2005, she helped a pair of Northern Colorado players earn first-team Division I Independent honors, including libero Abby Mayne, who was named Division I Independent Co-Defensive Player of the Year after averaging 4.44 digs per game.

After serving as an undergraduate assistant coach at Nebraska in 2003, Peterson was on the staff at Virginia Tech in 2004, helping the Hokies finish with a 13-16 record, including a 7-9 mark in the program's first season in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

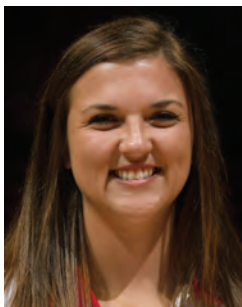

During her playing days, Peterson was a four-year performer in the Nebraska program from 1999 to 2002, helping the Huskers to a 123-10 record, including a national title in 2000. Peterson played in 133 matches as a Husker, including 438 of a possible 440 career sets. She finished her career holding the school record at the time with 1,111 career digs, despite playing three positions during her Nebraska career. She competed as a setter her freshman year and a defensive specialist her sophomore and junior years before taking over the newly created libero role in 2002. That season she averaged 3.35 digs per set, a total that was fourth in school history at the time. As a setter in 1999, she posted a then-freshman record 724 set assists.

In the classroom, Peterson was a three-time, first-team academic All-Big 12 selection, a six-time selection to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll and finished her degree in business administration at Nebraska in 2003, when she served as an undergraduate assistant coach. In that role, she assisted with recruiting, game day preparation and various coaching duties.

A native of Burchard, Nebraska, the former Lindsay Wischmeier led Lewiston High School to a pair of Class D-2 State Championships (1995 and 1997) and earned D-2 Player-of-the-Year honors while also being a three-time academic all-state selection. She married Ty Peterson in May of 2007. They have three sons: Drake, Jax and Ronan.

KELLY O'CONNOR

Video Coordinator

Kelly O'Connor is in her second season as the Nebraska volleyball video coordinator in 2018. Before coming to Nebraska, O'Connor was a graduate assistant for two seasons at Hastings College, helping the Broncos win the 2016 NAIA national title.

O'Connor played two seasons at Dickinson State in North Dakota, where she was a two-year starter and tied the school record for career triple-doubles. She began her collegiate career at Great Falls College in Montana. O'Connor was a student assistant at Dickinson State in 2014. She also coached club volleyball for the Montana Elite Juniors.

O'Connor earned her bachelor's degree in math education with a minor in biology.

ANDREW SATO

Volunteer Coach

Andrew Sato is in his first year as a volunteer coach on the Nebraska volleyball staff. Sato joined the team in the spring of 2018 and helped coach the Husker beach volleyball team.

A native of Calabasas, California, Sato completed his playing career at Long Beach State in 2017. He earned AVCA All-America honorable mention as a libero and finished his career ranked first in school history with 979 career digs. Sato and the 49ers reached the NCAA Semifinals in 2016 and 2017.

Sato graduated from Long Beach State with a degree in kinesiology - sport psychology in 2017.

JOLENE EMRICSON

Athletic Trainer

Jolene Emricson is in her 17th season as the athletic trainer for the Nebraska volleyball team in 2018. In her role, she evaluates and treats injuries as well as oversees rehabilitation programs for the Husker volleyball team.

Before arriving in Lincoln, Emricson spent one year as the athletic trainer for the men's lacrosse team at the University of Denver, where she also assisted with the men's ice hockey team.

Emricson, who is from Colorado Springs, Colorado, earned a bachelor of arts degree from Metropolitan State College of Denver in human performance and sport with a concentration in athletic training. While at Metro State, Emricson worked with the women's soccer, women's basketball and baseball programs.

She received her master's degree in education from the University of Nebraska in May of 2004.

BRETT HASKELL

Director of Sports Psychology

Dr. Brett Haskell, Ph.D., was promoted to Director of Sports Psychology in July of 2018.

In her role, Dr. Haskell provides counseling, psychological services, mental skills training, team building and leadership development services for each of Nebraska's 24 sports and more than 600 Husker student-athletes. Haskell works closely with student-athletes to help them develop skills and techniques that enhance personal well-being, address mental health concerns and optimize performance. She also works with coaches to provide team interventions that build student-athlete resilience and grow mental resolve.

Dr. Haskell came to Nebraska in September of 2014 after serving as a counseling and sport psychology postdoctoral counselor at Kansas. Along with obtaining her doctoral degree from Kansas in Counseling Psychology, Dr. Haskell provided counseling and performance enhancement training to Jayhawk student-athletes for five years.

Dr. Haskell earned her bachelor's degree in psychology from Nebraska-Kearney in 2005 and her master's degree in sport psychology from North Carolina-Greensboro in 2008. While at UNK, she was a member of the Loper volleyball team. Dr. Haskell resides in Lincoln with her husband, Brian, son Ezra and daughter Parker.

BRIAN KMITTA

Strength & Conditioning Coach

Brian Kmitta joined the Nebraska Athletic Department staff as an assistant strength coach in 2009. Kmitta serves as the strength and conditioning coach for track and field and volleyball.

Since Kmitta began working with the Nebraska volleyball program in 2014, the Huskers have won two NCAA titles (2015 and 2017) and two Big Ten titles (2016 and 2017). Kmitta has trained 95 All-Americans in his career in volleyball, track and field, tennis and gymnastics. He also has trained Olympic gold medalist wrestler Jordan Burroughs, who is a four-time world champion.

Originally from South Bend, Indiana, Kmitta graduated from Anderson University, where he received his bachelor's degree in physical education in 2004. His final year in college, Kmitta worked as a student assistant for the football team's offensive line, and as strength and conditioning coach.

After graduation, Kmitta served as assistant running backs coach and strength and conditioning coach at Anderson. He then spent a year at the University of Louisville as an intern strength and conditioning coach, before coming to Nebraska as an intern in the strength and conditioning program in 2006.

Kmitta is a CSCS certified strength and conditioning specialist and an NSCA registered strength and conditioning coach.

Kmitta and his wife, Sarah, have four children: Brian III, Agnes, and twins John and Edwin.

PAT LOGSDON

Executive Associate A.D./Administration & SWA

A member of the Nebraska Athletic Department since 1979, Pat Logsdon serves as Executive Associate Athletic Director for Administration and Nebraska's Senior Woman Administrator to the NCAA and the Big Ten Conference. She also serves on the Big Ten Sports Management Council.

Logsdon's duties include oversight on all administrative issues and operational functions of the Athletic Director's office. She also oversees the areas of Department Travel, including bowl and postseason travel, the Department's Gender Equity Plan, equipment and serves as a liaison to Adidas.

In addition, Logsdon manages student-athlete end of season evaluations and exit interviews. She also serves as the sport administrator for volleyball, beach volleyball, softball and men's and women's gymnastics.

Previously, Logsdon spent 23 seasons in football operations, including six seasons as NU's director of football operations, the first female in Division I to serve in that capacity. She handled organization of all recruiting functions, supervised compliance activities and coordinated all football administrative operations, including travel and practice operations.

Logsdon earned a bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska.

ROBERT W. DUGAS

Chief of Staff/Team Physician

An academic All-American football player at Louisiana State, Dr. Robert Dugas began as a team orthopaedist at Nebraska in 1990 and enters his third season as Chief of Staff for Husker Athletics.

Dugas completed his undergraduate studies at Louisiana State University and earned his medical degree from Louisiana State University Medical Center in New Orleans.

While at LSU, Dugas was a three-year football letterman. He is a member of the LSU Athletic Hall of Fame. During his football career, he was an Academic All-American, a Football News All-American Offensive Tackle, a two-time All Southeastern Conference Offensive Tackle, and in 1978, he received the Jacob's Trophy Award, where he was honored as the SEC's Top Offensive Lineman.

His practice interests and expertise include knee and shoulder reconstruction, sports injury evaluation and prevention, and arthroscopic surgery. Dr. Dugas is Board Certified in Orthopaedics and Sports Medicine. He is a member of the American Orthopaedic Society of Sports Medicine and The Arthroscopy Association of North America.

Dugas and his wife Jean have four children, Rob Jr., Kristie, Richard and Katherine, and two grandchildren, Manny and Lily.

DENNIS LeBLANC

Executive Associate A.D./Academics

Dennis Leblanc was named Nebraska's Executive Associate Athletics Director for Academics in 2015, after being promoted from Senior Associate Athletics Director for Academic Programs and Student Services. He has directed the academic program since 1993. Leblanc, who has been with the Academic Support Program for Student-Athletes since 1987, joined the Nebraska Athletics Department in 1983 as a member of the track and field staff.

Under Leblanc's leadership, Nebraska has become the national leader in CoSIDA Academic All-Americans for football and all sports, NCAA Today's Top Ten Award honorees and recipients of the National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Postgraduate Scholarship. Since he joined the academic staff in 1987, 249 of Nebraska's 325 CoSIDA Academic All-Americans have been honored, while NU has claimed 14 of its 17 NCAA Today's Top Ten Award recipients. Over 3,000 Husker student-athletes have earned their degrees during Leblanc's tenure.

The 86% Graduation Success Rate (GSR), reported in the 2015-16 academic year, for the Nebraska student-athletes was the highest GSR ever achieved for the second consecutive year. Also, for the first time in school history, all Nebraska teams achieved an NCAA Academic Performance Rate (APR) of 960 or higher.

Over the past decade, Nebraska's academic support program for student-athletes has received outstanding reviews from the NCAA Certification Review Team and the Nebraska Faculty Intercollegiate Athletics Committee. In 2012, Nebraska's program became one of only 21 programs nationally to be certified by the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletes (N4A) for meeting the established standards of service for student-athletes as outlined by the N4A.

Leblanc is a member of the N4A, and in 2002 he received its prestigious Lan Hewlett Award presented to an athletic administrator in recognition of distinguished performance in providing personal, academic and professional guidance to student-athletes.

Leblanc was presented the Chancellor's Award for Exemplary Service to Students at the 2004 University of Nebraska Honors Convocation, which recognizes individuals who go above and beyond their assigned duties, devoting extra time and effort in serving the needs of students. In 2005, he was presented with Honorary Mortar Board membership honoring him for his leadership and service to students. In 2007, Leblanc received the Hero Mentor Award through the American Red Cross, which annually recognizes a person for outstanding leadership and mentoring.

Leblanc earned his bachelor's degree from Bethany College, and a master's degree from Wichita State University. He and his wife, Coreen, have four children: Olivia, Christian and twins Madeleine and Mackenzie.

BILL MOOS

Athletic Director / 2nd Year / Washington State (1973)

Honor the past. Live the present. Create the future.

Nine simple words that carry impressive significance and undeniable responsibility. Words that Nebraska's new athletic director uses to lead his programs and set the tone for building champions in competition and in life.

William H. (Bill) Moos was named Nebraska's Athletic Director on Oct. 15, 2017, and fully assumed those responsibilities on Oct. 23.

Moos, who became the 15th athletic director in the history of the storied Cornhusker program, brings nearly 25 years of experience as an athletic director at three Division

I schools (Washington State, Oregon, Montana) with him to Nebraska. More importantly, he brings an impressive track record of success in building outstanding programs, developing long-term relationships, and for doing what is best for his schools, its fans and most importantly, its student-athletes.

"When you name the top three, four, five athletic programs in the great positions as an athletic director, Nebraska is in that same breath," Moos said at his introductory press conference at Memorial Stadium. "I want you to know that my motto has always been, in the 25 years I have been a Division I athletic director and it will be here too is very simple - honor the past, live the present, create the future."

Moos came to Lincoln after spending seven-plus years at Washington State (2010-17). He previously served 12 highly successful seasons as the athletic director at Oregon (1995-2007). During his time at his alma mater, Moos wasted little time in making his impact felt in Cougar Athletics, spearheading a department-wide rebranding effort with Nike while securing a 10-year, $35 million marketing rights agreement with IMG College. In addition, the 2004 WSU Alumni Achievement Award winner gained Regents approval for a $130 million addition and remodel of Martin Stadium, featuring a remodeled press box with luxury seating, including suites, loge boxes and club room.

Also included in the project was a state-of-the-art video board and an 80,000-square-foot football operations building that served as the stadium's showpiece and opened in May 2014. As the dean of Pac-12 athletic directors, Moos was at the forefront of the conference's procurement of a 12-year, $3 billion television contract with FOX and ESPN, a landmark agreement in college athletics. Under Moos' direction, the Cougar Athletic Fund's Annual Giving program saw an 81 percent increase in gifts while CAF donor members rose from nearly 4,000 to more than 7,500.

Additional facility enhancements under Moos included a center-hung video board in Beasley Coliseum that was installed prior to the 2011-12 season, giving Cougar basketball one of the premier fan experiences in the conference. An indoor golf hitting facility was also completed in early 2013, and Lower Soccer Field underwent a major renovation making the venue TV-ready while also providing one of the best playing surfaces on the West Coast, along with the addition of lights and a new scoreboard.

Other enhancements were made to the Moobery track facility, Bailey-Brayton Field, the basketball practice gym, Gibb Pool and the Simmelink Indoor tennis courts. In Moos' seven years at WSU, Cougar student-athletes and coaches accounted for 805 academic all-conference selections, 130 all-conference accolades, 45 All-America honors and three Pac-12 Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Moos served as Oregon's director of athletics from July of 1995 to 2007. While at Oregon he oversaw a 17-sport athletic department that grew to national prominence during his tenure. Oregon's annual athletic department budget grew from $18.5 million in his first year to more than $40 million by 2007, becoming 100 percent self-sufficient during that time. Under his direction the Duck Athletic Fund donor base increased from 4,930 to 12,290, resulting in an annual gifts increase from $4.1 million to $15.3 million.

Moos initiated more than $160 million in facility improvements while at Oregon. Included in that was the $90 million Autzen Stadium renovation in 2002, which added 12,000 new seats, 32 new suites, a new Club at Autzen and a new press box to the stadium. In his 12 years, the Ducks ranked first in Pac-10 football attendance 11 times, reaching 100 percent capacity in each of those seasons.

During Moos' tenure, Oregon athletics captured 13 Pac-10 championships across six different sports. He increased opportunities for women by adding two intercollegiate programs, soccer and lacrosse, and negotiated an all-inclusive shoe and apparel contract with Nike, one of only 14 in the country at the time. From an academic standpoint during Moos' tenure, Oregon student-athletes collected 722 academic all-conference selections, 34 Academic All-America selections, nine NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipients and one NCAA Top Ten Award.

During his first stint as a collegiate athletic director at Montana (1990-95), Moos created an academic support program and hired its first athletic academic coordinator, developed a facility enhancement plan that created more than $4 million in improvements, and lifted the school's fund-raising efforts to show a 300 percent increase in private and corporate gifts. Academically, Montana student-athletes were equally successful as the athletic department achieved a graduation rate 20 percent higher than the general university enrollment. Under Moos' watch Montana garnered 269 academic all-conference selections, five Academic All-Americans and two NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipients.

Moos began his athletic career as an athletic administrator in 1982 as assistant athletic director at Washington State. He also served as the school's associate athletic director (1988-90). At Washington State, he was director of development for more than five years and associate director for nearly two years, supervising all external operations. Prior to that, he managed and owned private businesses in Washington and Oregon for eight years. He was a student assistant football coach at Washington State for the 1973 season, then spent part of 1974 in Washington, D.C., serving as a government intern.

Raised on a wheat and cattle ranch in eastern Washington, Moos attended high school in Olympia when his father served in the governor's cabinet. Moos earned his bachelor's degree in history from WSU and was a three-year letterman in football before concluding his collegiate career by representing Washington State in the 1972 East-West Shrine All-Star Game in San Francisco.

He served as co-captain on the Cougars' 1972 squad and garnered first-team All-Pac-8 Conference honors. Moos and his wife Kendra have three daughters: Christa, Brittany and Kaiti; and two sons, Bo and Benjamin.

"To lead one of the most storied and successful athletic programs in the nation is a true honor. Nebraska is a very special place, known far and wide for its phenomenal fans, for doing things the right way, for supporting its students, honoring its athletic legacy and maintaining excellence in athletic success across the board. I am proud to help build upon these Husker traditions."

-Athletic Director Bill Moos

RONNIE GREEN

Chancellor

University of Nebraska President Hank Bounds appointed Ronnie Green Chancellor-Elect of the University of Nebraska-Lincoln on April 6, 2016. The appointment was approved by the Board of Regents.

Since 2010, Green has served as the Harlan Vice Chancellor of the Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources. In this role, he also jointly serves as the Vice President for Agriculture and Natural Resources of the University of Nebraska system. Since 2015, Green also has served as UNL's Senior Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs, acting as the institution's chief academic officer and its responsible authority in the absence of the chancellor. As Senior Vice Chancellor, Green is charged with helping UNL achieve excellence across all areas of the academic enterprise.

Green was raised on a mixed beef, dairy, and cropping farm in southwestern Virginia. He received bachelor and master's degrees in animal science from Virginia Tech and Colorado State University, respectively. His doctoral program was completed jointly at the University of Nebraska and the USDA-ARS U.S. Meat Animal Research Center in animal breeding and genetics in 1988.

Green has served on the animal science faculties of Texas Tech University and Colorado State University, and as the national program leader for animal production research for the USDA's Agricultural Research Service and executive secretary of the White House's interagency working group on animal genomics within the National Science and Technology Council where he was one of the principal leaders in the international bovine, porcine, and ovine genome sequencing projects. Prior to returning to NU, Green served as senior global director of technical services for Pfizer Animal Health's animal genomics business.

Green has published 130 refereed publications and abstracts, nine book chapters and 56 invited symposia papers; and has delivered invited presentations in 43 U.S. states and 21 countries around the world. He is a past-president of both the American Society of Animal Science and the National Block and Bridle Club, and has served in a number of leadership positions for the U.S. Beef Improvement Federation, National Cattlemen's Beef Association, National Pork Board, Federated Animal Science Societies and the National Research Council. He was named a fellow of ASAS in 2014 and, in 2015, a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the world's largest general scientific society.

Ronnie and best friend Jane are the proud parents of four children: Justin, a UNL political science student and political journalist in Washington, D.C.; Nate, a UNL business administration graduate and current UNL law student; Kelli, a UNL student majoring in advertising, public relations and global studies; and Regan, a UNL student majoring in pre-inclusive early childhood education.

JOSEPHINE POTUTO

Faculty Athletic Representative

Josephine (Jo) R. Potuto, the Richard H. Larson Professor of Constitutional Law, has been Nebraska's faculty representative (FAR) at the NCAA and conference level since May 15, 1997.

In 2002, Potuto was named Outstanding Faculty Athletics Representative by the All-American Football Foundation. From 2008-09 to 2011-12 she was president of the 1A FAR (FARs from FBS institutions). Among her NCAA positions, Potuto spent nine years (the maximum) on the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions (chair her last two years) and currently substitutes when a member cannot serve. She was one of three Big 12 Conference representatives on the NCAA Division I Management Council, served on the NCAA Men's Gymnastics Championship Committee, and currently serves on an NCAA-wide (all divisions) committee to advise NCAA staff on student-athlete issues and educational programming for coaches, staff, and student-athletes.

A sports law expert, Potuto regularly lectures and consults on sports issues in general and NCAA processes in particular. She is an expert witness in litigation involving sports issues. She testified before the House Subcommittee on the Constitution regarding due process in NCAA infractions hearings.

In the past year she has appeared in media reports in the NY Times, LA Times, USA Today, Washington Post, CBSSports.com, and the Chronicle of Higher Education, among others. She has presented to the Knight Commission on Intercollegiate Athletics, the Texas Commission of Higher Education, NCAA regional conferences, law conferences and law firms, NACDA, and to universities and law colleges, including the Universities of Istanbul, Washington, Maryland, Oklahoma, Santa Clara, Baltimore and Mississippi.

Potuto is a past adviser to the Uniform Law Commissioners Committee to draft a sports agent statute, has drafted rules governing search and seizure and hearings for the Nebraska Racing Commission, and also has written on issues of gender equity in college athletics. She has authored numerous articles on sports law issues. She just completed an article on student-athlete use of their names/likenesses with an econometrician and tax professor.

Potuto delivered the 2012 Chancellor's Distinguished Lecture. She serves on the senate's intercollegiate athletics committee. She is a past member of the UNL academic senate and also served on Nebraska's NCAA site certification steering committee.

Potuto teaches constitutional law, procedure, federal jurisdiction, and sports law. She has been a visiting professor of law at the University of Arizona, Rutgers University, the Cardozo College of Law at New York's Yeshiva University, the University of Oregon, the University of North Carolina, and Seton Hall University. She has worked as an assistant prosecutor in both the Essex and Morris County (N.J.) prosecutor's offices.

Potuto was project director and a drafter of the Uniform Law Commissioners Sentencing and Corrections Act, as well as the drafter for the Nebraska Supreme Court Committee to Draft Criminal Jury Instructions. She is the author of three books. She was elected to membership in the American Law Institute, the Nebraska State Bar Foundation, and the Douglass Society.

Potuto earned her bachelor's degree in journalism at Rutgers' Douglass College, and her master's degree in English literature at Seton Hall. She earned her juris doctorate at the Rutgers Law College.

She is a member of the bars of Nebraska and New Jersey and is admitted to practice before the U.S. Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, and the U.S. District Courts for Nebraska and New Jersey.

Nebraska Volleyball: A Championship Tradition

Nebraska's club volleyball program in the early 1970s set the foundation for the Huskers' early successes.

by Mike Babcock

A bulletin advertising an opening for the head volleyball coach's job at Nebraska had been discarded in a wastebasket in the coaches' office at Louisburg College. Paul Sanderford, the first-year head coach of the women's basketball team at the North Carolina junior college, retrieved the bulletin from the wastebasket and handed it to Terry Pettit, the school's head volleyball coach.

Without that assist from Sanderford, Pettit, an aspiring English teacher with a background in creative writing and poetry as well as coaching, would not have known about the opening. If he had not known about the opening, he would not have applied. And if he had not applied and been hired, the history of Husker volleyball would have been altered dramatically, because he and Husker volleyball became one and the same.

Pettit was the Nebraska volleyball coach from 1977 to 1999 – all but two years of the program's first 25 years of existence. Pat Sullivan, the Huskers' first volleyball coach, compiled an 83-21 record in two seasons of competition sanctioned by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women.

Before 1975, Nebraska didn't sponsor women's athletic teams. If women wanted to compete, they did so on loosely organized and unfunded club teams. It had been that way since the early 1900s, when a women's basketball team occasionally competed against teams from outside the University.

Basketball was introduced in the university's physical education classes for sophomore women in 1896, and as was the case with male students, class teams competed against each other.

Nebraska's first All-University women's team was organized in 1896 and included the best players regardless of class, according to the Nebraska State Journal. The team never lost, which should not be surprising, given how it was chosen and the quality of its intramural competition.

The first women's basketball game played before an audience was part of the University's sixth annual gymnasium exhibition in the spring of 1897, according to Phyllis Kay Wilke's "Physical Education for Women at Nebraska University, 1879-1923," published in Nebraska History in the spring of 1975.

Louise Pound seems to have been the driving force in women's basketball at Nebraska, organizing as well as playing on the earliest teams. She was captain of the first team to play against an opponent from outside the University in March of 1898. Pound, who also was the first All-University tennis champion, scored 11 points in a 15-7 victory against a team from Council Bluffs, Iowa.

In April of 1901, the university sponsored a women's state tournament under Pound's direction at Grant Memorial Hall. Nebraska was represented by an A team and a B team in a field that included teams from the Omaha YWCA, Lincoln High School and Wahoo High School. Nebraska's A team won the two-day competition and a month later won a rematch with the Omaha YWCA in Omaha.

In November of 1901, Nebraska played a team from the University of Missouri at Grant Hall, "the first intercollegiate match for girls ever played in the west," according to the Nebraska State Journal. Missouri was no match for its more experienced – and to that point undefeated – opponent, losing 31-4.

The Nebraska women did not suffer their first defeat until 1904, when they lost to a team from the University of Minnesota at Minneapolis after opening an abbreviated schedule by shutting out a team from the Lincoln YWCA. The Nebraska women avenged the Minnesota loss two weeks later in Lincoln.

The Nebraska women played games against the University of Minnesota, home-and-home two weeks apart, again in March of 1908, losing both, the second after a five-minute overtime.

Before the Minnesota games, Nebraska had defeated Nebraska Wesleyan to finish what was to be its final season with a 1-2 record against outside competition. University women were not allowed to compete in basketball, as well as other sports, only in physical education classes after April 24, 1908.

In response to the concerns of faculty members, who considered such activity inappropriate, the University board of regents abolished intercollegiate athletics for women. If not for the passing of Title IX by Congress in 1972, there probably would not be women's intercollegiate athletics now.

Initially, "there wasn't an embracing of women's athletics," Pettit said. "It's like any civil rights movement almost. It's tolerated, and you have to educate the public as to what it means. Today if you asked on a ballot if women should have the opportunity to compete in sports, there would be an overwhelming majority of people who would support it. But that wasn't the case in the 1970s."

"One of the things that allowed Nebraska to be successful was that we jumped in with both feet," Pettit said. "Nebraska decided:

The first Husker volleyball team, coached by Pat Sullivan (far right, back row), set the tone for future teams, compiling a 34-8 record and advancing to the AIAW regional finals in 1975.

Two-time All-American Christy Johnson led the Huskers to their first NCAA title in 1995.

'Well, if we're going to do this, let's do it well.' Whereas some schools were hesitant to get going, Nebraska was one of the first to offer scholarships. In any endeavor, if you're among the first, that gives you a tremendous advantage, and you continue to reap the benefits years later."

Under Pettit's direction, volleyball became to Husker women's athletics what football is to the Nebraska men's program. Pettit's teams advanced to the NCAA Tournament semifinals six times, and his 1995 team won the national championship, defeating Texas in the finals at Amherst, Mass.

The 1995 Huskers finished 32-1, with their only loss coming against Stanford in the second match of the season. Senior Allison Weston was the AVCA Co-Player of the Year and among three first-team All-Americans from Nebraska. The others were Christy Johnson and Lisa Reitsma.

Weston, a middle blocker, earned first-team All-America honors three times, the first Husker to do so. But Nebraska consistently has been represented on All-America teams since 1980, when Terri Kanouse became the Huskers' first volleyball All-American, as selected by the AIAW.

Three Huskers have earned All-America honors from the American Volleyball Coaches Association in the same season 19 times since 1984, most recently in 2017, when Kelly Hunter, Mikaela Foecke and Annika Albrecht captured All-America honors.

After the 1999 season, Pettit turned the program over to his long-time friend and former NU assistant coach, John Cook. Cook arrived at Nebraska with impressive credentials after building the Wisconsin volleyball program into a national power, and he wasted no time making his mark at NU. In what was supposed to be a transition year, Cook led the Huskers to a perfect 34-0 record and the 2000 NCAA title.

The following season, Cook again guided the Huskers to the NCAA semifinals, where they lost to eventual national champion Stanford. After two regional finals and a regional semifinal, the Huskers returned to the national title match in 2005 and won the school's third NCAA title in 2006, defeating Stanford, 3-1, in front of a then-NCAA record crowd of 17,209 at the Qwest Center. Nebraska added its fourth national title in 2015, beating Texas 3-0 at the CenturyLink Center in Omaha, and its fifth in 2017 after a 3-1 win over Florida in Kansas City.

In 18 years, Cook has guided Nebraska to a 531-69 record, four national titles, eight NCAA semifinal appearances, nine Big 12 championships and three Big Ten titles. During the Big 12 era, Cook's teams were an amazing 207-13.

The tradition that Cook continues to build began in 1978, when Kanouse and Shandi Pettine were the first Nebraska volleyball players to be recruited with full scholarships. By 1981, Pettit could award 12 scholarships.

"We had a full complement," he said. "And that put us ahead of some schools."

Those first Nebraska teams included primarily in-state athletes. But Kanouse was from Indiana and Pettine was from Colorado, evidence not only of Pettit's interest in expanding the Huskers' recruiting base, but also of the respect his program was earning beyond the state's borders.

Terry Pettit, pictured with Kim Behrends, led NU to six NCAA semifinals and the 1995 national title. The Devaney Center court was named in honor of Coach Pettit after a generous gift from Bill and Ruth Scott.

Fiona Nepo, a three-time All-American setter from 1996 to 1998, came from Honolulu, Hawaii.

Karen Dahlgren, an All-American in 1985 and 1986, and Lynae Loseke, whose career was cut short by a knee injury, walked on, another element of the volleyball program's consistent success shared by the football program.

"We don't have 50 walk-ons, but if we can get one good one a year, it pays off," Pettit said.

The 1981 and 1982 recruits, which included Cathy Noth (from Iowa) and Mary Buysse (from Minnesota), gave the Huskers "two really good classes in a row," Pettit said. And, except for Dahlgren, who redshirted, they helped get Nebraska into the NCAA Tournament for the first time.

NU had qualified for the AIAW National Tournament in 1978 at Tuscaloosa, Ala., but "there was no excitement because nobody here got to see the matches," Pettit said.

That changed in 1982, when Nebraska defeated a Penn State team coached by Russ Rose (Pettit's assistant in 1978 and 1979) in the NCAA Tournament's first round before a large and enthusiastic crowd at the NU Coliseum.

"That was a dramatic step for the program," Pettit said. "It was the first time we really had an opportunity to market something. I don't think anything changes the perception of an athletic program like hosting an NCAA event. From then on, we were always playing, always hosting."

The Huskers have qualified for 36 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, which "may be our biggest achievement is the consistency. We're always very competitive," Pettit said.

Nebraska reached the NCAA finals for the first time in 1986, Dahlgren's senior season, defeating Stanford in the semifinals but losing to Pacific on its home court in Stockton, Calif.

Three seasons later, the persistent Huskers were back in the NCAA title match, losing to Long Beach State (after defeating top-ranked UCLA) at Honolulu, Hawaii. Pettit realized then that his program had progressed to a point where winning the national championship was a realistic goal.

Several other factors contributed to the success of the Nebraska volleyball program, including the Coliseum, which was refurbished and reconfigured specifically as a volleyball facility in 1992.

The intimacy of the Coliseum was a significant factor in growing fan support, which has kept Nebraska among the nation's leaders in attendance, annually ranking in the top three nationally, including second in 2012. Nebraska sold out its last 181 straight matches at the 4,030-seat Coliseum, dating back to 2001.

The Huskers moved into the newly renovated Bob Devaney Sports Center for the 2013 season. Nebraska sold out nearly 8,000 season tickets in the reconfigured Devaney Center for its inaugural season and led the nation in attendance in 2013 with an average of 8,175 fans per match. The Huskers led the nation in attendance for the fifth straight season in 2017 with an average of 8,202 fans per match while stretching their regular-season sellout streak to 234 matches. Nebraska set an NCAA regular-season attendance record on Sept. 11, 2009, as a sellout crowd of 13,870 watched the Huskers take on UCLA.

Nebraska's fans have consistently shattered volleyball attendance records. In 2015, Nebraska drew a then-NCAA-record crowd of 17,561 for the NCAA final at the CenturyLink Center in Omaha. Five of the 10 largest crowds at the NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship have been set in Omaha. Fans also know what to expect from the Husker teams that play at home.

"They know what type of effort they're going to see," Pettit said. "The fans are only 10 or 15 feet removed from the playing court, so they can tell whether or not there's enthusiasm, whether or not people (the athletes) are communicating. That's what they really come to see. It certainly helps that Nebraska wins. The winning gets you there the first time. But you can't have a great enterprise, whether it be a business or an athletic team, unless you have an identity."

"People have that feeling about Nebraska volleyball. They know exactly what it is. They know what type of athlete is on the court. They know the style of play. They know the effort. They know the consistency. They know that she's a good student. And they know that she's a solid citizen when she goes on to her career after volleyball."

The attraction wasn't immediate. Though the program has been successful from the beginning, it experienced some lean times as far as interest and support.

"It's been a slow, consistent growth," Pettit said. "I think that fits Nebraskans. They aren't real impressed with flash or something that just happens in the short term. What they want to see is progress over the long run. 'Show me that you'll continue to get the job done.' If you do that, then they'll ride with you even when things aren't so good."

The Huskers celebrate match point against Wisconsin to win the 2000 NCAA title. Nebraska went 34-0 to earn its second national title.

With Each Other, For Each Other, Huskers Win 2017 NCAA Title

The Nebraska volleyball team entered the 2017 season coming off back-to-back NCAA Semifinal appearances and a 2016 Big Ten championship. But with three AVCA All-Americans having graduated, the Huskers had the mindset of reinventing for the 2017 season. Led by senior co-captains Kelly Hunter and Annika Albrecht, NU not only reinvented itself with seven freshmen on the roster, it repeated as Big Ten champions and reached the final four for the third straight season for the first time in program history. Playing with the motto "With Each Other, For Each Other," the Huskers capped off a storybook ending in Kansas City with the program's fifth NCAA Championship.

Semifinals

In another epic NCAA Tournament match between Nebraska and Penn State, the Huskers survived one match point and rallied from a 2-1 deficit to defeat the Nittany Lions in a national semifinal match at the Sprint Center in Kansas City in front of an NCAA Semifinals-record crowd of 18,374. Nebraska snapped Penn State's 23-match winning streak, and the top-ranked Nittany Lions finished the season 33-2, with both losses coming to Nebraska. The Huskers were up against match point in the fourth set but rallied to win 28-26. In the fifth set, Nebraska trailed 6-4 before winning five straight points to take a 9-6 lead, and NU went on to win 15-11.

Final

The Huskers won their fifth national title, defeating the No. 2 seed Florida Gators, 3-1, in front of an NCAA Championship-record 18,516 fans at the Sprint Center. The Huskers won their second title in three years, becoming just the third team in NCAA history to win five volleyball national championships. Nebraska won the opening set 25-22 and cruised to a 25-17 win in set two. Florida bounced back to win the third set, 25-18, before Nebraska came out on fire in set four, racing to a 9-1 lead en route to a 25-16 victory. Mikaela Foecke paced the Huskers with a match-high 20 kills. Kelly Hunter dished out 37 assists and tied her season high with six kills while finishing her NCAA Tournament career with a 16-1 record. Foecke and Hunter were named the co-Most Outstanding Players of the NCAA Championship and were joined on the team by libero Kenzie Maloney, who had a match-high 15 digs and produced a career-high two kills.

Highlighting the 2017 Season

- Nebraska won its fifth national title and second in three seasons. The Huskers became only the third team in NCAA history to win five national championships in volleyball.
- Kelly Hunter was a first-team AVCA All-American and the Big Ten Setter of the Year. Annika Albrecht and Mikaela Foecke were second-team AVCA All-Americans, and Foecke and Hunter were co-Most Outstanding Players of the NCAA Championship. Foecke was also the Most Outstanding Player in 2015. She became the fourth player in NCAA history to twice be named the NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Player and the first to earn the honor in non-consecutive years.
- John Cook became the fourth coach in NCAA history to win four national titles and the third to win four national championships at one school.

Quoting Coach John Cook

"I feel very honored and privileged to be around a team and a staff that's had an unbelievable belief in what we could do. These guys gave everybody an example in the sport of volleyball that you don't have to have five All-Americans. The other thing I want to say is how cool is this for volleyball? 18,000, sold out, happened to be close to Nebraska, which was a big help. But those fans still traveled down here to fill this place, and what a great statement for the sport of volleyball and how it's growing. It's pretty cool."

Huskers Trust Each Other, Peak At Right Time

Nebraska's goal for the 2015 season was clear from the beginning: Destination Omaha. With the NCAA Championship returning to Omaha's CenturyLink Center for the first time since 2006 - when Nebraska won the national title in front of an NCAA record crowd - the goal always had to be to return to Omaha. The Huskers' mantra "Ultimate Trust" took off in late October, and they never looked back. After back-to-back home losses to Minnesota and Wisconsin in mid-October, the Huskers reeled off 16 straight wins en route to their fourth national title in program history and first since 2006. After bowing out in the NCAA Regional Final three straight years, the Huskers cleared that hurdle with a 3-1 victory over No. 1-ranked Washington in Lexington, Ky., reaching the final four for the first time since 2008.

Semifinals

The fourth-seeded Huskers used a strong finish to push their way past No. 9 Kansas, punching their ticket to the NCAA Championship match. Nebraska won the final seven rallies of the match to defeat the Jayhawks in front of 17,551 fans at the CenturyLink Center.

The Huskers led for all but six rallies in the first two sets, taking a 2-0 lead into the locker room following a 25-20 victory in set one and a 25-21 win in set two. The Jayhawks used six blocks to take the third set, 25-20. In the decisive fourth set, Kansas pulled within 18-16 on the strength of a 4-0 run, only to see Nebraska win the final seven rallies to advance to its seventh NCAA final.

Final

The Huskers won their fourth national title, sweeping the second-seeded Texas Longhorns at the CenturyLink Center in Omaha. Kelsey Fien's 22nd swing of the night tooled the Texas block and set off a raucous celebration in front of an NCAA-record crowd of 17,561 inside the CenturyLink Center, most of whom were wearing red.

The Huskers won their first national title since taking the crown in 2006, when Omaha hosted the NCAA Championships for the first time. Nebraska head coach John Cook won his third national title since taking over for the legendary Terry Pettit in 2000.

Nebraska ended its championship season with a 16-match winning streak to finish the year with a 32-4 record. The Huskers had to work for their fourth national title, 20 years after topping Texas, 3-1, for their first NCAA Championship in 1995. The first set was tied at 23 before Nebraska won the final two rallies to earn a 25-23 win. In set two, Nebraska led 24-23 before winning the final rally. The Huskers took set three by a 25-21 margin, winning the title on their third match point.

Freshman Mikaela Foecke, the tournament's Most Outstanding Player, had a match-high 19 kills for the Huskers and hit .385.

Highlighting the 2015 Season

- Nebraska won its fourth national title in program history, adding to titles won in 1995, 2000 and 2006.
- The Huskers made their 34th straight NCAA Tournament appearance and 21st NCAA Regional appearance in the last 22 years.
- The Huskers led the nation in attendance for the third consecutive season with 8,206 fans per match.
- Nebraska's three AVCA All-America honors increased its nation-leading total to 80.
- Nebraska extended its regular-season sellout streak to 204 matches.
- Mikaela Foecke was named the Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Championship, becoming just the third freshman to earn the honor. Kelly Hunter, Amber Rolfzen and Justine Wong-Orantes were also named to the All-Championship team.

Quoting Coach John Cook

"It's hard to put into words the environment tonight, the setting, Nebraska versus Texas, and the crowd, national championship match, ESPN - everything else that went with it. For us to come out and play a great match against a great team, it was just awesome to see. It was just awesome to watch. So I can say I'm really proud, which I am, but I'm really more proud of this team on the journey they took to get to this point and to be able to come out and trust it and play their best match."

A Magical Season

Nebraska enjoyed a storybook season in 2006, putting together a 33-1 record en route to the school's third national title. Despite the loss of AVCA National Player of the Year Christina Houghtelling before the start of preseason practice and a lineup that featured three new starters, the Huskers won their first 23 matches, including 18 sweeps, before suffering their only loss of the year. The Huskers rebounded by losing just one game over the next seven matches before running into their toughest test of the postseason. One game away from the national semifinals in Omaha, the Huskers overcame a 2-0 deficit to topple Minnesota and win a regional for the first time outside the state in school history. That win set the stage for one of the biggest volleyball events in history, as the Huskers played for a chance at a national title in front of sold-out crowds of 17,000-plus at the Qwest Center in Omaha.

Semifinals

Nebraska used a career night from Tracy Stalls to advance to the finals with a 3-1 victory over fourth-ranked UCLA. Stalls totaled a career-high 17 kills on .577 hitting, out-shining UCLA All-American Nana Meriwether, who was held to 12 kills and a season-low .190 hitting. The Huskers dropped the opener and trailed 28-26 before a Pavan kill pulled NU within a point. Stalls then closed out the game with three straight points from the service line, tying the match at one. Nebraska took control of the third game behind the strong serving of Pavan, who ran off nine straight points at the service line including three aces that turned a 13-all game into a 23-13 cushion. Stalls had seven kills in each of the final two games. While Pavan finished with a match-high 22 kills, the Husker defense held UCLA in check behind 29 digs from Dani Busboom and 25 from Jordan Larson, as both enjoyed career bests in digs against the Bruins.

Final

The Huskers followed a similar script as the semifinals, dropping the opening game before regrouping. Trailing 24-23 in game two, the Huskers seized the momentum with three straight points, highlighted by a Dani Mancuso kill that gave NU a 25-24 lead. In game three, another unlikely hero emerged to spark a Husker comeback. Trailing 23-19, Amanda Gates came off the bench and sparked NU with two big blocks, the second of which put the Huskers up 29-28. In the finale, the Huskers rode the arm of Sarah Pavan, who had six of her match-high 22 kills, before Jordan Larson's 19th kill of the night closed out the match after the Cardinal pulled within 29-27. NU had four players total at least 10 kills, as Mancuso finished with 12.

Highlighting the 2006 Season

- The Huskers led the country in both kills (17.40) and assists (16.20) per game, the first time Nebraska had led the country in either category.
- Nebraska set school records for kills per game, assists per game and block assists (823).
- Nebraska became the third team in NCAA history to lead the AVCA poll the entire season, joining UCLA (1992) and USC (2003), and the first team to win a national title while hosting since UCLA in 1991.
- Sarah Pavan became the first Husker athlete to win the Honda-Broderick Cup - symbolic of the top female athlete in college athletics. Pavan also became the first Big 12 student-athlete to win the award since the league's inception in 1996.

Quoting Coach John Cook

"This team maxed out to their abilities. They really never wavered the entire year, and they embraced it if they did. To win this here in Nebraska, with this group of people and overcoming the obstacles to get here and dealing with this pressure, it has to be No. 1."

- Cook following the national title match

Nebraska shattered NCAA single-match and all-session records at the 2006 NCAA Championships in Omaha, drawing 34,222 for the two matches, including a then-NCAA record crowd of 17,209 for the title match against Stanford. At the time, that was the largest crowd to ever see a volleyball match in the United States.

Mission Accomplished

Nebraska entered the 2000 season with a No. 11 preseason ranking and an eagerness to prove the pollsters wrong. Competing with a new coach, a new setter and without two-time All-American Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) didn't scare the Huskers. A trio of sophomore All-Americans, including AVCA Player-of-the-Year Greichaly Cepero, emerged to lead NU to a 34-0 record and the program's second national title. With a 3-2 win over Wisconsin Dec. 15 in the championship final, the Huskers became just the second team in NCAA history to finish a season undefeated. First-year Head Coach John Cook earned AVCA Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Semifinals

In the first match, Nebraska relied on its greatest strength - its block - to stifle Hawaii at the net in a 3-1 victory. The Huskers out-blocked the Rainbow Wahine 23-7.5, as Jenny Kropp and Amber Holmquist each tallied 10 block assists. With the win, the Huskers broke the school record for consecutive victories in the modern era of five-game matches. NU produced 36 victories in 1976 when all matches were played as two-out-of-three contests.

Final

After falling behind 2-1 to Wisconsin, Nebraska breezed to a 15-2 win in the fourth game to force a rally-scoring fifth game for the national title. With senior Kim Behrends at the service line, Laura Pilakowski slammed her 23rd kill of the match to secure the championship. Pilakowski was joined on the NCAA All-Tournament team by classmates Greichaly Cepero and Amber Holmquist. Cepero added 52 assists, eight digs, eight kills and seven blocks, while Holmquist added 16 kills on a .387 hitting efficiency with five blocks.

Highlighting the 2000 Season

- Nebraska claimed its 23rd Big Eight/Big 12 championship in 25 seasons. With a 20-0 run through the league, the Huskers improved their all-time mark against Big 12 schools to 375-32-1, an amazing .920 winning percentage.
- Nebraska, ranked No. 1 in the AVCA/USA Today Coaches poll for 14 straight weeks, swept 26 of its 34 opponents and 17 of its 20 conference opponents, losing just five games in Big 12 play. Only three teams took NU to five games.
- Amber Holmquist shattered three Nebraska single-season blocking records, setting new marks with 199 block assists, 220 total blocks and 1.98 blocks per game. Holmquist also broke the Big 12 record for total blocks in a single game with 16 at Texas on Oct. 22.
- Nebraska bettered its own then-NCAA record for single-match home attendance, as 12,504 fans cheered the Huskers to a 3-0 win over Colorado, Nov. 4, at the Bob Devaney Sports Center.

Quoting Coach John Cook

"If there are 10 teams better than us, I think it's going to be a heck of a year in college volleyball, because believe me, we're going to be pretty good."

- Cook before the 2000 season

The Huskers celebrate with the championship trophy following their win over Wisconsin in the 2000 NCAA Championship match.

Laura Pilakowski had a match-high 23 kills and a team-best 15 digs in the five-set win over Wisconsin in the NCAA Championship match.

One Goal - One Team - One Champion

Nebraska entered the season with one goal in mind, win the national championship. Led by a talented trio of seniors, the Huskers capped their championship run by hammering Texas 3-1 in the title match at Amherst, Mass. After three previous trips to the NCAA Championships, the Huskers' incredible drive and focus fueled them to their first national title.

Semifinals

In the first match, Nebraska countered a 15-10 loss in game one, by winning the second and third games, 15-8. Michigan State responded to NU's challenge, winning the fourth game, 15-9. In the fifth and decisive game, with the score deadlocked at 7-7, NU scored four consecutive points, forging to an 11-7 lead. The Spartans added one more point, but the Huskers prevailed, 15-8. Allison Weston led the Husker charge, recording a team-high 30 kills.

Final

In the finals, Texas jumped to an early 12-4 lead in game one, but the Huskers rallied to make it close, losing 15-10. Although they lost the first game, the Huskers gained momentum, playing solidly at the end of the game. NU cruised to wins in games two and three, thumping the Longhorns, 15-2 and 15-7. Game four swayed back and forth, but the Huskers persevered, sealing NU's first national title with a 16-14 victory. Billie Winsett and Kate Crnich led the way, posting 25 kills each. Crnich's 25 kills were a career high, hitting .500 for the match.

Outside hitter Kate Crnich had a career-high 25 kills on .500 hitting in the NCAA title match against Texas.

Highlighting the 1995 Season

- After losing its second match of the season to then-No. 1 Stanford, NU reeled off 31 consecutive wins to claim the NCAA title. An amazing 28 of Nebraska's 32 victories were 3-0 wins.
- Not only did Nebraska claim its first-ever national championship, the Huskers posted school records for wins and winning percentage that would stand until the 2000 season. Nebraska finished with a 32-1 (.970) record, bettering the .969 percentage it posted in 1994 (31-1). NU also matched the then-school record for wins, equaling the 1990 squad's record total of 32.
- Allison Weston shattered Eileen Shannon's Husker school record for career kills (1,521), finishing her career with 1,778.
- Nebraska bettered its own NCAA record for single-match home attendance, as 11,529 cheered the Huskers to a 3-0 win over Colorado, Oct. 21, at the Devaney Center. NU set the previous record of 11,032, Sept. 14, 1991, also at the Devaney Center. The mark would stand until the 2000 season.

Quoting Coach Terry Pettit

"We certainly should be strong. We have great senior leadership in Allison Weston, Billie Winsett and Christy Johnson. We were 31-1 last season (1994), and I think we're going to be better this year."

- Pettit before the 1995 season

Huskies Win Big Ten, Return to Final Four

The Huskers captured their first Big Ten title since 2011 and made a return trip to the NCAA semifinals before falling just short of their goal to become the first Husker team to repeat as national champions. Still, the Huskers reached the pinnacle of the Big Ten for the second time in their six seasons in the conference with an 18-2 record. NU began the season with 12 straight wins, and after a setback at home to Ohio State, reeled off 14 consecutive conference wins to take control of the title race. The Huskers earned the No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

NCAA Regional

Nebraska hosted Penn State in a regional semifinal and won in the most dramatic of fashions. After falling behind 2-0 in the match, NU trailed 24-22 in set three and was on the brink of elimination. But the Huskers produced an epic comeback to win the set 26-24 and went on to win the match in five sets. The Huskers breezed past Washington in the final before the season ended in a 3-0 loss to Texas in the final four.

2016 Season Highlights

- Four Huskers were named AVCA All-Americans - Kadie Rolfzen and Justine Wong-Orantes (first team), Kelly Hunter (second team) and Amber Rolfzen (third team). Kadie Rolfzen was also a CoSIDA Academic All-American.
- Wong-Orantes became Nebraska's all-time career digs leader with 1,890, surpassing Kayla Banwarth.
- NU's .912 winning percentage was its best since 2008.

NU Reaches NCAA Semifinals

The Huskers inspired the state, reaching the NCAA semifinals for the third time in four years. Led by Big 12 Player of the Year Jordan Larson, NU went 31-3 and won a share of the Big 12 title. John Cook was the Big 12 Coach of the Year. After dropping the first two sets to Penn State, the Huskers thrilled an NCAA-record crowd of 17,430 at the Qwest Center in Omaha by winning the next two sets to even the match, marking the only time that Penn State lost a set all year. NU led 10-8 in the fifth set, but six unanswered points ended the Huskers' NCAA title bid.

NCAA Regional

After opening regional action with a sweep of Michigan, the Huskers faced Washington for the first time since the 2005 NCAA title match. The Huskies won the first two sets before Nebraska fought back to win the next two sets. The Huskers trailed 9-3 before running off nine straight points, including eight off the serving of Kayla Banwarth, to take a three-point lead. Washington pulled even at 13 apiece, but a Husky hitting error and a service ace from Larson completed the comeback. Tara Mueller led the way with a career-high 24 kills and 16 digs, while Larson matched her career best with 21 kills and added 18 digs.

2008 Season Highlights

- Nebraska tied the NCAA record for most consecutive home wins with 87, matching the mark Penn State set between 1995 and 2000.
- The Huskers won 30 matches for the 20th time in program history and fifth consecutive year.
- Jordan Larson set Nebraska's school career mark with 186 career aces, breaking the mark of 161 set by Val Novak.

Huskers Earn NCAA Runner-Up Honors

The 2005 season proved to be one of the most memorable in school history. The Huskers went 33-2, falling one victory shy of a third NCAA title. Behind All-Americans Christina Houghtelling, Melissa Elmer, Sarah Pavan and Jennifer Saleaumua, the Huskers won their first 28 matches and earned their second straight Big 12 title. Nebraska rolled into the national semifinals in San Antonio, sweeping UCLA and fourth-ranked Florida in front of then-NCAA-record crowds in Omaha.

NU Reaches NCAA Semifinals

Nebraska fell two wins shy in its bid to repeat as national champions, as U.S. National Team member Logan Tom pounded 22 kills to lead Stanford to a 3-0 win over NU in the NCAA semifinals in San Diego. The loss capped an otherwise successful season for the Huskers, who were 31-2 overall and 20-0 in the Big 12 Conference, dropping just three games in conference play. NU Coach John Cook was named Big 12 Coach of the Year, and Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) was named the Big 12 Player of the Year.

NCAA Regional

The Huskers' eighth semifinal bid did not come easy. After breezing to wins in games one and two, Nebraska dropped the next two games to Florida to tie the match. NU, which had not played a five-game match all year, trailed 12-10 when Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) responded with back-to-back kills to even the score. After a Florida service error, Metcalf pounded another kill to bring Nebraska within a point of the win. All-American Aury Cruz held NU off with a kill, but Metcalf answered on the next rally with her 25th kill of the match.

2001 Season Highlights

- Nebraska earned its eighth NCAA semifinal bid and made its 20th consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.
- The Huskers won 30 matches for the 12th time in program history.
- Nebraska broke the school record for opponent attack percentage, holding teams to a .106 combined mark to break the previous record of .109 set in 1995.

NU Reaches NCAA Semis for Third Time in Four Seasons

Nebraska's senior-laden team of Fiona Nepo, Megan Korver and Jaime Krondak guided the Huskers to one of the best seasons in NU history. The Huskers went 32-2 and reached the NCAA semifinals in Madison, Wis. Nebraska's victory over Wisconsin in the regional championship in Lincoln was a memorable one, as the longest match in school history spanned nearly three hours. NU avoided a two-game deficit by withstanding 14 game points to win game two, 18-16. Wisconsin won game three, 15-9, but Nebraska came right back to claim game four, 15-10. In the rally-scoring fifth game, NU recovered from a 9-7 hole to blitz to a 15-10 win. Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) was named the tournament MVP after posting 27 kills.

NCAA Semifinals

The match between the Huskers (32-1) and the Penn State Nittany Lions (34-0) featured three AVCA All-Americans on each side of the net and the top offense (PSU) and top blocking attack (NU) in the country. The third-ranked Huskers rallied from a two-game deficit by winning game three and led midway through game four, 6-2. But Lauren Cacciamani recorded seven kills in nine swings to lead Penn State to the victory. NU finished with 20 blocks.

1998 Season Highlights

- The Huskers went 18-0 at home to extend their NU Coliseum win streak to 65 matches.
- Nebraska also led the nation with 3.93 blocks per game.
- Three-time All-American Fiona Nepo shattered Nikki Stricker's career assist record by becoming Nebraska's all-time assist leader.

Near Repeat

Despite the loss of three standout seniors who guided Nebraska to its first national title in 1995, and injuries to three key players, the Huskers nearly became the first team to repeat as NCAA champions since UCLA turned the trick in 1990 and 1991. NU fell only two matches shy of back-to-back national championships, dropping a hard-fought decision to eventual champion Stanford in the national semifinals.

NCAA Semifinals

The 30-3 Huskers faced top-seeded Stanford (29-2), which featured four AVCA All-Americans. Nebraska won the first game, 15-9, but the Cardinal amassed large leads in each of the next three games, securing a 3-1 win. Two days later, the Cardinal swept Hawaii for the national title. Lisa Reitsma led the Huskers with a match-high 22 kills. Kate Crnich smacked 16 kills and added a match-high 15 digs.

1996 Season Highlights

- NU opened the year by recording its then-school record 32nd-straight victory, a 3-1 triumph over Illinois State in the State Farm/NACWAA Classic.
- Nebraska claimed the first-ever Big 12 championship with a 19-1 league mark.
- Lisa Reitsma shattered Kathi DeBoer's single-season kill total (529 in 1987) with 611. In addition, Reitsma's 5.05 kills per game bettered Allison Weston's mark of 4.99 kills per game set in 1994.
- Fiona Nepo posted a school-record 1,653 set assists, eclipsing the 1989 standard of 1,608 set by Val Novak.

Back-to-Back

For the second consecutive year, Nebraska returned to the NCAA Championships, only to be ousted one match short of the finals. Once again, as it did in 1986, Pacific sent the Huskers home with a 3-1 loss. It was the Tigers' second victory of the season against Nebraska, as the Tigers defeated the Huskers 3-1 in an early season tournament.

NCAA Semifinals

A close match throughout, Nebraska and Pacific's intense game one set the tone. Nebraska led 13-11, but saw the Tigers score four unanswered points and claim the crucial first game. The Huskers rebounded for a 15-11 win in game two, scoring the game's final three points. Games three and four were equally competitive, but the Tigers had the stamina to thwart Nebraska's attack, winning 15-9 and 15-12. Cris Hall led NU with 18 kills, while Val Novak had 46 assists and a match-high 17 digs. Krissy Fifer led the Pacific attack with 21 kills.

1990 Season Highlights

- In terms of winning percentage, Nebraska finished with its then-best season ever at 32-3 (.914). Before losing to Pacific in the semifinals, Nebraska had won 16 straight contests.
- Nebraska set team records in block assists (558) and opponent hitting percentage (.135).
- Nebraska won its 15th consecutive Big Eight title with a perfect 12-0 record and the tournament crown with a win over Colorado.
- The 1990 season was the last at the Nebraska Coliseum until it reopened for volleyball in 1992. In 1990 the Huskers were a perfect 18-0 and drew an average of 2,816 fans per match.

A Second Time

After a two-year hiatus, Nebraska seniors Virginia Stahr and Carla Baker led NU to its second appearance at the NCAA Championships. In 1986, the Huskers had advanced to the championship match before losing to Pacific. In 1989, NU was hoping for better luck in Honolulu, Hawaii. But fate was not on Nebraska's side. The Husker hitters made quick work of UCLA, before losing, 3-0, to Long Beach State.

NCAA Semifinals and Final

A balanced Husker attack and solid defensive play propelled Nebraska past a UCLA team that had lost just two matches all season. Cris Hall led NU with 19 kills, while Janet Kruse had 12, Eileen Shannon had 11 and Virginia Stahr added 10. NU out-hit UCLA .265 to .160. Unfortunately, Nebraska's second championship match was much like its first in 1986. Nebraska battled hard in the first game, only to lose 15-12.

From that point on, the Huskers could not regain their winning ways, as Long Beach State cruised, 15-0, 15-6 to win the match. Shannon led Nebraska with 11 kills, and Hall added 10.

1989 Season Highlights

- Virginia Stahr captured several awards in 1989 including Delta Scholar Athlete of the Year, Woody Hayes Female Athlete of the Year, Big Eight Female Athlete of the Year and the NCAA Today's Top Six Award.
- Nebraska set team records in 1989 with 2,031 kills, 1,803 assists and a 17.07 kills per game average.
- Nebraska won its 14th consecutive Big Eight title with a perfect 12-0 record.
- The Huskers started the year with a season-high 14-match winning streak.

Breakthrough Season

After losing in the Midwest Regional final the previous two seasons, Nebraska broke through the field in 1986 and made its first-ever trip to the NCAA championship. Led by senior All-Americans Karen Dahlgren, Tisha Delaney and Enid Schonewise, the Big Eight champion Huskers traveled to Stockton, Calif., with an impressive 28-5 record. The Huskers defeated Stanford, 3-1, before falling to Pacific, 3-0.

NCAA Semifinals

In the semifinals, Schonewise led the Husker attack with 15 kills, while Angie Millikin had 11 kills and a match-high 18 digs. Nebraska hit .258 for the match and held the Cardinal to just .089 hitting. In the championship match, Nebraska met a Pacific team that had lost just one game during the entire NCAA Tournament. The Huskers hung tough in game one, coming back from a 14-9 deficit to cut the margin to two at 14-12. But the Tigers were too much, as they converted their third game point for the 15-12 win. The first game took too much out of the Huskers, as they fell in games two and three by scores of 15-4, 15-4.

1986 Season Highlights

- Nebraska set four single-season team records, including most kills, attacks, hitting percentage and digs. Schonewise set individual season records for kills, kills per game and attacks.
- The Huskers set an NCAA record with a .331 hitting percentage, a mark that still ranks in the top 15 all time.
- Nebraska won its 11th straight Big Eight championship in 1986 with a 10-0 record and defeated Oklahoma, 3-0, for the tournament trophy in Salina, Kansas.

Terry Pettit led the Nebraska volleyball program to one NCAA title, six NCAA semifinals appearances and 21 conference titles in 23 years as head coach.

- The Huskers placed a school-record five players on the AVCA All-America teams in 2007 and placed four players on the AVCA All-America teams in 2001, 2005, 2006 and 2016.

Nebraska's AVCA All-Americans

Mikaela Foecke, 2017
Outside Hitter, West Point, Iowa

Mikaela Foecke earned second-team AVCA All-America honors as a junior in 2017 after winning her second-career NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Player award as Nebraska won the national title for the second time in her career. Foecke was unanimously selected to the All-Big Ten team and was an all-region pick for the third time after leading the Huskers with 3.53 kills per set on .290 hitting with 2.36 digs per set in her first season as a six-rotation player. Foecke led the team in service aces with 39 and had nine double-doubles on the season, including the NCAA Semifinal (19 kills, 19 digs) and NCAA Final (20 kills, 14 digs). Foecke became just the fourth player in NCAA history to twice be named the NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Player and the first to earn the honor in non-consecutive years.

Annika Albrecht, 2017
Outside Hitter, North Aurora, Ill.

Annika Albrecht was named a second-team AVCA All-American and an All-Big Ten selection in 2017 after a career season. As a senior co-captain in her first year as a full-time six-rotation player, Albrecht averaged 3.02 kills per set and 2.74 digs per set while serving 34 aces. She finished her career at No. 6 on Nebraska's all-time career aces chart with 139. Albrecht became the third Husker in the John Cook era (2000-present) to play in every set (489) of her four-year Husker career - joining Sarah Pavan and Dani Busboom - and her 21 NCAA Tournament matches at Nebraska tied the school record set by Jordan Larson and Rachel Schwartz. Albrecht led the Huskers in the NCAA Semifinals against Penn State with 13 kills and 13 digs for her ninth double-double of the season.

Kelly Hunter, 2016, 2017
Setter, Papillion, Neb.

Kelly Hunter, a three-year team captain and the most accomplished setter in Husker history, was named a first-team AVCA All-American and the Big Ten Setter of the Year in 2017, and she was an All-Big Ten selection for the second time in her career after leading the Huskers to a Big Ten and NCAA Championship. Hunter received numerous honors from volleyball publications, including National Player of the Year and All-America first-team honors from PrepVolleyball.com and VolleyMob.com. She was named co-Most Outstanding Player of the NCAA Championship with teammate Mikaela Foecke, and she finished her career with a 16-1 record in the NCAA Tournament as Nebraska's starting setter, posting the most wins and highest postseason winning percentage by a starting setter in Husker history. Hunter was a second-team AVCA All-American in 2016 after leading the Huskers to a Big Ten title and the NCAA Semifinals, and she set the Huskers to the 2015 national title as well. Hunter ended her career with 4,125 assists, the second-most in Husker history, and she totaled a school-record 699 career postseason assists. Off the court, Hunter was a CoSIDA Academic All-District first-team honoree, and she was a semifinalist for the Senior CLASS Award.

Amber Rolfzen, 2015, 2016
Middle Blocker, Papillion, Neb.

Amber Rolfzen was a second-team AVCA All-American in 2015 and earned third-team AVCA All-America honors in 2016. She finished her Husker career with 500 block assists to move to fifth in school history. Her 551 career total blocks put her sixth on NU's all-time chart. Rolfzen averaged 1.94 kills per set and a team-best 1.38 blocks per set as a senior. In her junior season, Rolfzen led the Big Ten and was fourth nationally in blocks with 1.58 per set, the best block average by a Husker since Melissa Elmer's school-record 2.17 in 2005. Rolfzen was an NCAA Championship All-Tournament Team pick, as well as a five-time Big Ten Defensive Player-of-the-Week honoree and a two-time All-Big Ten selection.

Justine Wong-Orantes, 2015, 2016
Libero, Cypress, Calif.

Justine Wong-Orantes was named a first-team AVCA All-American and All-Big Ten selection at libero in 2016, as well as Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year for the second straight season. Wong-Orantes led the Huskers with 4.23 digs per set and finished her career as Nebraska's all-time career digs leader with 1,890. She also set a Nebraska single-match school record with 35 digs in a win over Minnesota on Oct. 23. Wong-Orantes earned third-team honors as a junior in 2015 after recording 555 digs on the season, the third-most by a Husker in school history. She became the fastest Husker in school history to reach 1,000 career digs (75 matches) and was an NCAA Championship All-Tournament Team selection.

Kadie Rolfzen, 2013, 2014, 2015, 2016
Outside Hitter, Papillion, Neb.

Kadie Rolfzen repeated as a first-team AVCA All-American in 2016, becoming the second player in NU history (Sarah Pavan) to earn four career AVCA All-America honors. Rolfzen was also an All-Big Ten selection for the fourth straight season, becoming the third Husker in program history to capture four first-team all-conference honors (Sarah Pavan, Greichaly Cepero). Rolfzen was a standout on and off the court, becoming Nebraska's first CoSIDA Academic All-America selection since 2012 with a first-team selection as a senior. She was also an NCAA Senior CLASS Award first-team honoree. Rolfzen led the Huskers with 3.16 kills per set and added 2.58 digs per set while hitting a career-high .295 in 2016. She ended her career with 1,564 career kills and 1,255 career digs - ranking sixth and seventh, respectively - on NU's all-time charts. As a junior, Rolfzen led the Huskers to the national title with 3.30 kills per set to earn first-team All-America honors for the first time in her career. Rolfzen was a third-team All-American as a freshman in 2013 and again in 2014.

Kelsey Robinson 2013
Outside Hitter, Bartlett, Ill.

Kelsey Robinson produced one of the most impressive senior seasons as a Husker, earning first-team AVCA All-America honors. She was also named the Big Ten Player of the Year and earned unanimous All-Big Ten honors. Robinson was one of four nominees for the Honda Sports Award for Volleyball and a semifinalist for the AAU Sullivan Award. She totaled 530 kills on the season and averaged 4.45 kills per set, hitting at a clip of .318 for the year and also tallying 396 digs. She led the Big Ten in kills (4.69) and points (5.41) per set during the conference season. Robinson also ended the season ranked ninth in hitting percentage, second in kills and fifth in aces in the Big Ten. She posted 19 double-doubles on the year and was named the Big Ten Player of the Week four times in 2013. Robinson earned a spot on the U.S. national team for the 2016 Olympics in Brazil.

Lauren Cook, 2012
Setter, Lincoln, Neb.

Lauren Cook was one of the nation's elite setters in her senior season, ranking among the top players in the country with 11.15 assists per set (1,372 total). She helped the Huskers finish second in the Big Ten in total assists (1,617) and hitting percentage (.292). She added another 28 service aces and 338 digs in the 2012 campaign and totaled 50 or more assists six times as a senior, including a season-high 56 against UCLA on Aug. 25. Cook recorded a team-best 17 double-doubles (assists-digs) on the year and helped Nebraska hit .300 or better in 18 out of 33 matches in 2012. She also won AVCA National Freshman-of-the-Year honors at UCLA in 2009.

Gina Mancuso, 2011, 2012
Outside Hitter, Omaha, Neb.

Gina Mancuso was named a first-team AVCA All-American in 2011. Also selected as a unanimous first-team All-Big Ten pick, she led the Huskers with 407 kills for an average of 3.60 kills per set. Mancuso added 2.66 digs per set. Her efficiency kept her ranked in the top 10 in the conference for total kills during the entire season. She notched at least 10 kills in 25 regular-season matches during 2011 and posted a career-high 24 kills against Colorado State. She was a second-team AVCA All-America selection, Nebraska volleyball's first Senior CLASS Award winner and a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American in 2012, as she led the Huskers in kills per set, kills and totaled 11 double-doubles on the year.

Nebraska's AVCA All-Americans

Hannah Werth, 2010, 2012
Outside Hitter, Springfield, Ill.

Hannah Werth was named a second-team AVCA All-American in 2012 and 2010 after earning honorable-mention accolades as a freshman in 2009. She added an honorable-mention award in 2011. Also selected as the 2010 Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, Werth ranked second for the 2010 Huskers in both kills (2.80) and digs (3.09) per set, while she was third in solo blocks with 11. The Springfield, Ill., native led the Huskers with 10 double-doubles in 2010, including a 16-kill, 16-dig performance against Washington in the NCAA Tournament to notch the 21st double-double of her career. She earned second-team honors in 2012 after recording 360 total kills as a senior and an average of 3.05 kills per set and a team-high 390 digs. She tallied 14 double-doubles on the year. Werth finished her career with 1,286 kills and 1,367 digs, joining three other Huskers as the only players to record 1,000 career digs and kills.

Lindsey Licht, 2010
Right Side, Aurora, Colo.

Lindsey Licht was a go-to player at right side for the Huskers in 2010, as she led the team with 2.81 kills per set while hitting a career-best .295. A first-team All-Big 12 pick, she led the Huskers in kills 10 times and tied for the team lead on three other occasions. The Aurora, Colorado native topped her single-match best in kills with 18 against Florida and tied her career best in blocks twice with eight apiece against both Oklahoma and Texas A&M. Licht and teammate Hannah Werth continued the success of Husker attackers in the Big 12 era in 2010. During Nebraska's 15 seasons in the conference, the Huskers' right side and outside hitters earned 22 All-America certificates.

Brooke Delano, 2009, 2010
Middle Blocker, Bellevue, Neb.

After earning her first AVCA All-America honor in 2009, Brooke Delano was a first-team selection in 2010. Delano led the 2010 squad in hitting percentage (.406) and blocks per set (1.42), ranking her in the top 10 nationally in both categories. A unanimous All-Big 12 pick, Delano became just the fourth Husker in school history to hit .400 or better in a season, as she joined fellow All-Americans Tracy Stalls (.473), Virginia Stahr (.440) and Amber Holmquist (.406). The Bellevue, Nebraska native set single-match career bests in nearly every category in 2010, including kills (15), hitting percentage (.875), assists (3), aces (3), block assists (9) and total blocks (10). Her .875 hitting performance (14-0-16) on the road against Missouri ranked as the fourth-best performance all-time at Nebraska, as it bettered her .833 night against the Tigers in 2009.

Sydney Anderson, 2008, 2009
Setter, Salt Lake City, Utah

Sydney Anderson was the eighth Husker setter to be a multi-time All-American, earning second-team honors in 2008 and third-team accolades in 2009. She led Nebraska to a 26-7 record and a berth in the regional finals in 2009, while averaging 11.53 assists, 0.77 kills and 2.45 digs per set. She ranked 13th nationally in assists while running an offense that ranked in the top 10 nationally in both kills and assists per game. She owned a team-high 14 double-doubles and helped the Huskers hit .300 or better in 13 matches. She collected her first All-America award in 2008, as she averaged 11.60 assists, 2.05 digs, 0.82 kills and 0.29 service aces per set to lead Nebraska into the NCAA semifinals. She was eighth nationally in assists and totaled eight double-doubles. The 2008 Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, Anderson also was a first-team All-Big 12 performer and a five-time Big 12 Rookie of the Week as a sophomore.

Tara Mueller, 2008
Outside Hitter, Scottsdale, Ariz.

One of three AVCA All-Americans in 2008, Tara Mueller earned second-team honors in helping the Huskers to a 31-3 record and a berth in the 2008 NCAA semifinals. She was the Most Outstanding Player of the Seattle Regional, totaling a career-high 24 kills and 16 digs in the regional final against Washington. A first-team All-Big 12 performer, Mueller averaged 3.51 kills and 2.37 digs per set, ranking among conference leaders in both categories.

Jordan Larson, 2006, 2007, 2008
Outside Hitter, Hooper, Neb.

Jordan Larson was one of the nation's top outside hitters, earning All-America honors in three consecutive years (2006-08). She is one of only four Huskers to record more than 1,000 kills and digs in a career and finished her career with 1,600 kills, 1,410 digs and a school-record 186 service aces. She captured Big 12 Player and Defensive Player of the Year in 2008, averaging 3.92 kills and 3.19 digs per set to help NU to an NCAA semifinal appearance. She collected third-team All-America honors in 2007, averaging 3.45 kills, 3.18 digs and a Big 12-best 0.51 service aces per set. As a sophomore, she averaged 4.13 kills and 3.50 digs per set and was the only Big 12 player to rank in the league's top 10 in both kills and digs. She joined the U.S. National Team on a full-time basis in January of 2009 and competed in the 2012 London Olympics and earned a spot on the 2016 U.S. Olympic team in Brazil.

Sarah Pavan, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007
Right Side/Opposite, Kitchener, Ontario

One of only five players in NCAA history to be named a four-time AVCA first-team All-American, Sarah Pavan was one of the most dominant players in Big 12 history. She finished her career holding school records for career kills (2,008) and kills per game (4.56) and was a two-time Big 12 Female Athlete of the Year after leading NU to four straight Big 12 titles and the 2006 NCAA title. An NCAA Top Eight Award winner, Pavan was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year for all sports. She averaged 4.83 kills, 1.90 digs and 0.49 service aces per game in 2007, earning Big 12 Player-of-the-Year honors for the third straight season. In 2006, she won the Honda-Broderick Cup as the nation's premier female college athlete and was named AVCA Player of the Year after averaging a school-record 5.10 kills per game in helping Nebraska to its third NCAA title. In 2004, she was named AVCA National Freshman of the Year after setting Husker freshman marks for kills (481) and kills per game (4.54). She played professionally overseas and rejoined the Canadian National Team in 2010. Pavan earned a spot on the Canadian beach volleyball team in the Olympics in Brazil in 2016.

Rachel Holloway, 2006, 2007
Setter, Franklin, Tenn.

Rachel Holloway was a two-time AVCA All-American who helped NU to a 63-3 record as a starter. She finished her career ranked eighth on NU's all-time assists list with 2,861, while her 13.50 assists per set marked the highest total in school history. She earned second-team AVCA All-America honors in 2007 by averaging 13.58 assists per set and helping NU rank third in team hitting percentage (.327). In 2006, she was a third-team AVCA All-American, becoming only the second freshman setter to guide a team to a national title. Holloway guided an offense that led the nation in assists (16.20) and kills (17.40) per set and ranked second in hitting percentage (.295).

Tracy Stalls, 2006, 2007
Middle Blocker, Denver, Colo.

Tracy Stalls was one of the nation's top middle blockers, earning second-team AVCA All-America honors in 2006 and 2007. As a senior, Stalls averaged 2.83 kills and ranked third nationally with a .473 hitting percentage, shattering school and Big 12 hitting percentage marks. In 2006, she averaged 2.67 kills per game while leading the Big 12 with a .400 hitting percentage in helping the Huskers to a national title. A four-year starter and two-time All-Big 12 performer, Stalls finished her career in the top five in both total blocks (578) and block assists (528).

Nebraska's AVCA All-Americans

Christina Houghtelling, 2005, 2007
Outside Hitter, Cambridge, Neb.

A two-time All-American, Christina Houghtelling was one of the nation's most versatile performers. She earned second-team All-America accolades in 2007, averaging 3.02 kills and 3.95 digs to earn Big 12 Defensive Player-of-the-Year honors after missing all of 2006 with shoulder surgery. In 2005, Houghtelling was named the AVCA National Player of the Year, leading the Huskers to an NCAA runner-up finish. She averaged 3.69 kills, 2.49 digs and 1.03 blocks per game. Houghtelling was at her best against the Huskers' toughest opponents, earning MVP honors at the AVCA/NACWAA Showcase and at the NCAA Omaha Regional. She also earned All-Big 12 honors for the first time in 2005.

Jennifer Saleaumua, 2004, 2005
Outside Hitter, National City, Calif.

One of the nation's best all-around performers during her Husker career, Jennifer Saleaumua earned second-team All-America honors in 2004 and third-team accolades in 2005. A two-time Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year, Saleaumua finished her career as one of only four Huskers to total more than 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs. She still stands as NU's all-time leader in digs with 1,568 and ranks 11th with 1,247 career kills. She totaled 40 career double-doubles while helping the Huskers rank among the nation's leaders in defense in each of her last two seasons. Saleaumua earned All-Big 12 accolades all four seasons as a Husker, including first-team honors in 2002, 2003 and 2004.

Melissa Elmer, 2003, 2004, 2005
Middle Blocker, Fort Wayne, Ind.

One of the nation's most feared blockers during her collegiate career, Melissa Elmer was a three-time AVCA All-American. Elmer led the nation in blocking in each of her final two seasons (2004-05), averaging a school-record 2.17 blocks per game as a senior. She had 10 or more blocks in 10 matches, including a Big 12-record 16 blocks against Kansas, while also averaging 2.68 kills per game. A three-time All-Big 12 performer, she finished her career as the Big 12's all-time leader with 767 blocks and was one of only three Big 12 players to total 1,000 kills and 700 blocks. In 2004, she led the nation with 1.89 blocks per game, totaling 200 total blocks en route to first-team All-America honors.

Greichaly Cepero, 2000, 2001, 2002
Setter, Dorado, Puerto Rico

Greichaly Cepero virtually redefined the setter position with her all-around skills and blocking ability during her highly decorated career at Nebraska. A first-team AVCA All-American in 2000 and 2002 and a second-team pick in 2001, Cepero was just the second setter in school history to become a three-time AVCA All-American. She also earned Big 12 Player-of-the-Year honors in 2000 and shared the award with teammates Amber Holmquist and Laura Pilakowski in 2002. A CoSIDA Academic All-American, Cepero was also the 2000 Honda Award winner for volleyball. The best blocking setter in NU history, Cepero ended her senior season tied for fourth on the all-time charts with 84 career solo blocks, and ranks 10th all-time in total blocks (507) and second in set assists (3,987). In her three seasons as the starting setter, NU never hit less than .304 and ranked among the top 10 nationally in that category each of her three seasons.

Amber Holmquist, 2000, 2001, 2002
Middle Blocker, Houston, Texas

Amber Holmquist will be remembered as one of the best middle blockers in school history. A first-team AVCA All-American in 2001 and 2002 and a second-team pick in 2000, Holmquist owned or shared 17 school records and eight Big 12 Conference records. Holmquist concluded her career ranked second on the Nebraska all-time charts with a .396 hitting percentage and 15th on the all-time kills chart with 1,122. As a sophomore in 2000, Holmquist shattered three Nebraska single-season blocking records, setting new marks with 199 block assists, 220 total blocks and 1.98 blocks per game. A 2002 CoSIDA Second-Team Academic All-American, Holmquist also finished her career with Big 12 records for single-season hitting percentage, total blocks and blocks per game, as well as single-match records for block assists and total blocks. Holmquist finished her career as the first player in school history to lead NU in hitting percentage and blocks per game in four consecutive seasons.

Laura Pilakowski, 2000, 2002
Outside Hitter, Columbus, Neb.

Laura Pilakowski earned first-team AVCA All-America honors in her first season as a starter in 2000, and second-team honors in her final season with NU in 2002. Pilakowski finished her career ranked ninth all-time with 1,183 kills and eighth with a .318 career hitting percentage, the best mark in school history at the time by an outside hitter. The Huskers' go-to offensive player during the 2000 national title run, Pilakowski led NU with 4.30 kills per game and a .336 hitting percentage in 2000. She was the third three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American volleyball player in school history.

Jenny Kropp, 2001
Middle Blocker, Grand Island, Neb.

Jenny Kropp was named an AVCA Second-Team All-American after dominating opponents at the net in 2001 with 1.73 blocks per game and 180 total blocks. Offensively, Kropp hit .371 with 2.45 kills per game as a senior. She finished her career with 816 kills and a .331 career hitting percentage. Kropp still ranks seventh all-time in total blocks (544) and fifth in block assists (484).

Nancy Metcalf (Meendering), 1998, 1999, 2001
Right Side Hitter, Hull, Iowa

Nancy Metcalf (Meendering) will be remembered as one of the best players in Nebraska volleyball history. Metcalf was just the second three-time AVCA First-Team All-American at Nebraska and played for the United States in the 2004 Olympics. She was also honored as an NCAA Top Eight Award winner, a two-time Big 12 Player of the Year, a three-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, the 2001 CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year, a two-time NCAA Regional MVP and a three-time first-team All-Big 12 honoree. Metcalf finished her career with 1,603 kills and 412 blocks. Metcalf was the only Husker to record six 30-kill matches in a career, and owned or shared 13 school records, including kills in a single match with 39 against Kansas State in 1999.

Megan Korver, 1998
Middle Blocker, Panama, Neb.

Megan Korver, a native of Panama, Neb., emerged as one of the dominant middle blockers in the country during her senior season to earn second-team AVCA All-America honors. Korver led the nation in hitting percentage through the first half of the season and finished with an impressive .358 mark. She set a school record and became just the 11th player in NCAA history to hit 1,000 in a match by recording 10 kills on 10 swings against Iowa State. Korver ranks ninth on the school charts with 517 total blocks despite playing just three seasons at NU.

Nebraska's AVCA All-Americans

Fiona Nepo, 1996, 1997, 1998
Setter, Honolulu, Hawaii

Fiona Nepo had one of the most decorated careers of any player in Nebraska volleyball history. The 1998 Big 12 Player of the Year, Nepo finished her career as the all-time assist leader at NU with 4,824, and she also owns the NU single-season assist record, which she set in 1996 with 1,653. Nepo earned three All-America certificates in her career, including first-team honors her sophomore and senior seasons. With Nepo in the starting lineup, Nebraska compiled an 88-13 overall record, including a 54-6 Big 12 mark, won two Big 12 championships and made two NCAA semifinal appearances. The three-time team captain was also a tremendous jump server, notching 94 service aces during her career.

Lisa Reitsma, 1995, 1996, 1997
Right Side Hitter, Sanborn, Iowa

Lisa Reitsma earned first-team All-America honors as a sophomore and junior and a second-team award as a senior. Reitsma was a three-time first-team all-conference selection, including the 1996 Big 12 Player of the Year. She burst on the scene as a sophomore and was a key ingredient as the Huskers won their first national title. Reitsma left her mark on the Husker record books, as she ranks in the top five in kills (1,633, third) and attacks (3,766, fourth). She had more than 25 kills in a match nine times, the second-most by any Husker in school history.

Christy Johnson, 1994, 1995
Setter, Omaha, Neb.

Christy Johnson guided the Huskers to their first national championship in 1995 and earned first-team All-America honors her junior and senior seasons. She holds the second-best winning percentage of any starting setter in school history, leading Nebraska to a near-perfect 63-2 record, including 24-0 in Big Eight play, over her final two seasons. She still holds the top two season marks for assists-per-game in school history and ranks fifth in career assists with 3,183. She was also a 1995 CoSIDA Academic All-American.

Allison Weston, 1993, 1994, 1995
Middle Blocker, Papillion, Neb.

Allison Weston is arguably one of the best collegiate players in NCAA history. Nebraska's first three-time, first-team AVCA All-American, Weston capped an impressive career by winning the 1995 national title and sharing AVCA Player-of-the-Year honors with Cary Wendell of Stanford. The former captain of the U.S. National Team, Weston still holds the school record for kills in a four-game match (37). She ranks second all-time at Nebraska with 1,778 kills and is in the career top 10 in attacks (sixth, 3,659), service aces (eighth, 119), solo blocks (tied for fourth, 84), block assists (10th, 422) and hitting percentage (seventh, .353). Weston holds three of the top-10 single-match kill performances. A two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, Weston was also a two-time Big Eight Player of the Year during her playing career.

Kelly Aspegren, 1994
Outside Hitter, Callaway, Neb.

Kelly Aspegren, a two-year starter for the Huskers, had 332 kills as a senior and hit .344 to lead Nebraska, including .410 in Big Eight play. Aspegren was a first-team All-Big Eight selection as a senior and was tabbed honorable mention as a junior. She was also a two-time academic All-Big Eight selection. During her two years as a starter, Nebraska compiled a 56-7 overall mark and a 22-2 Big Eight ledger. She finished her career with 557 kills on 1,329 attacks for a .280 career hitting percentage and an average of 2.29 kills per game. She also recorded 657 digs and 156 blocks for career averages of 2.70 and 0.64 per game.

Stephanie Thater, 1990, 1991, 1992
Middle Blocker, Union, Mo.

Stephanie Thater was the second three-time All-American in Husker volleyball history and is still regarded as one of the best middle blockers to come through the NU program. She led her team to the NCAA semifinals as a sophomore and compiled an 81-14 record in her three years as a starter. Her teams went 48-0 in regular-season conference play, winning four Big Eight titles and three conference tournament championships. Thater was a two-time Big Eight Player of the Year and a three-time all-conference selection. She holds the school record for block assists in a five-game match with 14. Her season records for block assists (165), total blocks (197) and blocks per game (1.92) stood for seven years before Amber Holmquist topped them in 2000, and her career records for block assists (502) and total blocks (591) stood until 2002.

Cris Hall, 1991
Outside Hitter, Chanute, Kan.

Cris Hall is one of only five athletes and the only female in Nebraska history to earn All-America honors in two different sports. Hall was a second-team All-American as an outside hitter in 1991, and earned four All-America track certificates from 1991 to 1993 (three high jump, one heptathlon). Hall still holds the NU all-time outdoor track record in the heptathlon (5,936 points). Her 1,251 career kills rank ninth in school history.

Janet Kruse, 1989, 1990, 1991
Outside Hitter, Fort Calhoun, Neb.

Janet Kruse is one of the finest student-athletes to ever play for the Huskers. A native of Fort Calhoun, Neb., Kruse was Nebraska's first three-time All-American, earning first-team honors in 1989 and 1990 and second-team honors in 1991. She was also named the NCAA Woman of the Year for Nebraska and garnered an NCAA Today Top Eight award in 1992, after twice earning CoSIDA Academic All-American-of-the-Year honors in 1990 and 1991. She also earned third-team academic All-America honors in 1989. During her career, the Huskers made two NCAA semifinal appearances, including a title appearance in 1989. Her 33 kills in a five-game win over Kentucky are tied for eighth on the all-time single-match charts. Kruse also ranks ninth on Nebraska's career kill charts with 1,269 kills.

Val Novak, 1989, 1990
Setter, Oak Lawn, Ill.

A native of Oak Lawn, Ill., Val Novak earned first-team All-America certificates after leading the Huskers to NCAA semifinal appearances in 1989 and 1990, including a runner-up finish in 1989. Novak, who converted to setter after playing outside hitter her first two seasons, ended her career by earning the Big Eight Player-of-the-Year award in 1990. She finished with 778 career kills and ranks second in career service aces (161), eighth in digs (1,068) and fourth in set assists (3,303). She led the nation in assists per set and guided Nebraska to the nation's top hitting percentage in 1989. NU never finished lower than fifth in the national rankings during her career.

Nebraska's AVCA All-Americans

Virginia Stahr, 1988, 1989
Middle Blocker, Waco, Neb.

Virginia Stahr set the standard for excellence in the Nebraska volleyball program as a standout athlete and student. Stahr was tabbed a two-time All-American and capped her career by leading the Huskers to a national runner-up finish in 1989. She earned the NCAA Today Top Eight award after earning CoSIDA Academic All-American-of-the-Year honors in 1988 and 1989.

Her teams won four Big Eight regular-season titles and three conference tournament titles, and she was named the 1989 Big Eight Player of the Year. She still shares the school record for service aces in a five-game match (7), while her 31 kills vs. Texas rank 16th on the all-time single-match charts. She also ranks third in school history in career service aces (159), second in solo blocks (106), fifth in total blocks (555) and seventh in block assists (449).

Lori Endicott, 1987, 1988
Setter, Springfield, Mo.

Lori Endicott is one of the most decorated setters in Nebraska's long line of All-America setters. Endicott earned first-team honors as a senior and was a second-team selection as a junior after playing right side her first two seasons. Endicott continued her playing career as a member of the U.S. National Team from 1988 to 1996. She was America's starting setter at the 1992 and 1996

Olympic Games and was named the best setter at the Barcelona Games after leading the United States to a bronze medal. A two-time Big Eight Player of the Year, Endicott led Nebraska to four Big Eight regular-season titles during her career. She was also named a 1988 CoSIDA Academic All-American. Several of Endicott's marks may stand untouched for years, including her school-record 109 assists vs. Texas.

Karen Dahlgren, 1985, 1986
Middle Blocker, Bertrand, Neb.

Karen Dahlgren played a key role in Nebraska's 1986 national runner-up finish. A two-time All-American, Dahlgren was honored as a Honda-Sport Award winner in volleyball after being named to the CoSIDA Academic All-America team three straight years. Dahlgren holds school records for solo blocks in three- and four-game matches. She also holds the top two single-season solo block marks as well as NU's career solo block record. She ranks sixth on the all-time total blocks chart with 550. The Bertrand native is also third in school history with a career hitting percentage of .386. She is one of only four players to lead the Huskers in a statistical category (blocks) all four years. Dahlgren was also NU's first volleyball CoSIDA Academic All-American, earning honors in 1984, 1985 and 1986.

Tisha Delaney, 1986
Setter, Festus, Mo.

Tisha Delaney is responsible for leading Nebraska to its first NCAA semifinal appearance in 1986, where the Huskers defeated Stanford before losing to Pacific in the title match. An AVCA second-team All-American as a senior, Delaney set school records as a senior for assists in four-game (63) and five-game matches (88), both of which Lori Endicott surpassed in 1988. Delaney still ranks among the Husker single-season top 10 in service aces (49), and assists (1,433) as well as career assists (2,605).

Enid Schonewise, 1986
Outside Hitter, Beatrice, Neb.

Enid Schonewise earned second-team All-America honors and first-team All-Big Eight honors in 1986. Schonewise held the school record for kills in a match (38 vs. Arizona State, 1986) for nearly 14 seasons. She still ranks 10th on the Husker single-season kills list with 493 in 1986.

Annie Adamczak, 1985
Middle Blocker, Moose Lake, Minn.

Annie Adamczak was a three-year starter in the Nebraska volleyball program and capped her career by earning first-team All-America honors as a senior after leading the Huskers with 354 digs. She is one of four Nebraska volleyball players to be named the conference Female Athlete of the Year, joining Virginia Stahr in 1989, Greichaly Cepero in 2001 and Sarah Pavan in 2006 and 2007. A two-time All-Big Eight selection, Adamczak held the three-game school record for digs with 28 until 2009, when Kayla Banwarth recorded 32 against Baylor. During Adamczak's career, Nebraska won all four regular-season and tournament conference titles and twice advanced to the NCAA Mideast Regional Championship.

Cathy Noth, 1983, 1984
Setter, Bettendorf, Iowa

Cathy Noth moved from outside hitter to setter her junior season and earned AVCA All-America honors in 1983 and 1984. Noth guided NU to its first NCAA Tournament appearance in 1982 and helped Nebraska compile a four-year-record of 112-24, winning four Big Eight regular-season titles and four Big Eight Tournament crowns. She set a then-Big Eight and school record with a .398 hitting percentage in 1984. Noth's career hitting percentage of .366 still ranks fourth in school history. Noth was also Nebraska's first three-time All-Big Eight selection and the only volleyball player in the history of the conference to earn three Big Eight Tournament MVP awards. Noth served as an assistant coach under Terry Pettit from 1988 to 1998.

Terri Kanouse, 1980 (AIAW)
Middle Blocker, St. Paul, Ind.

Terri Kanouse helped put Nebraska on the volleyball map by earning AIAW All-America honors in 1980, the program's first national honor. A two-time first-team all-district selection, Kanouse was also named first-team All-Big Eight her final three seasons. Kanouse was also a two-year team captain for the Huskers.

THIS IS NEBRASKA

There is no place like Nebraska...and there is no experience like Nebraska volleyball. For four decades, Nebraska volleyball has set the standard for excellence. From academic and athletic success to sellout crowds and national media exposure, the Huskers are at the forefront of the sport. Nebraska volleyball players are achievers. The Huskers lead the nation in AVCA All-Americans (87) and CoSIDA Academic All-Americans (38). Four Huskers have claimed National Player-of-the-Year awards, while seven Huskers have been named the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year.

A TRADITION OF SUCCESS

Nebraska has earned 36 straight trips to the NCAA Tournament and owns an all-time win percentage of .843 in 42 years as a program. The Huskers have won 30-or-more matches 23 times, including 11 of the last 18 years under Head Coach John Cook.

HUSKER ALL-AMERICANS

Nebraska leads the nation in AVCA All-Americans, producing 43 student-athletes who have combined for 87 All-America certificates. Nebraska is second nationally with 45 first-team All-America awards. Nebraska has had at least one All-American every season since 1983 (36 straight seasons), including 52 All-Americans in Cook's 18 seasons.

OLYMPIANS

POLL LEADERS

Nebraska is one of only two programs nationally to be ranked in all 525 AVCA Coaches Polls since 1982. Nebraska has been ranked in the top 10 a nation-leading 470 times and was ranked in the top 10 for 115 consecutive weeks from Aug. 30, 2004 to Sept. 5, 2011. The Huskers have been ranked No. 1 in 99 all-time polls, the most in NCAA history.

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Nebraska volleyball is unmatched in the classroom. The Huskers have combined for a nation-leading 38 CoSIDA Academic All-America awards. Nebraska has had 12 academic All-Americans over the past 13 seasons. In 2007, Sarah Pavan was the CoSIDA Academic All-American of the Year in college volleyball and all of NCAA Division I athletics for the second straight year. She is the only student-athlete in history to accomplish that feat. Husker volleyball players have earned four NCAA Top Ten Awards, seven CoSIDA Academic All-American-of-the-Year awards and eight NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships. Sydney Townsend received back-to-back NCAA Elite 90 Awards in 2016 and 2017 for having the best GPA of any student-athlete competing at the NCAA Division I Women's Volleyball Championship.

HOME OF CHAMPIONS

NATIONAL CHAMPION 1995

The 1995 Huskers rebounded from a setback to Stanford in their second match of the season to reel off 31 consecutive wins, including a 3-1 win over Texas to claim the program's first national title. Three NU players were named AVCA All-Americans, including AVCA Co-National Player-of-the-Year Allison Weston.

NATIONAL CHAMPION 2000

The 2000 Husker team produced one of the best seasons in NCAA history, culminating with the program's second national championship with a 3-2 victory over Wisconsin. Ranked sixth and 11th in the preseason polls, the young Huskers finished the season with a 34-0 record and became just the second team in NCAA history to go undefeated and win a national title.

NATIONAL CHAMPION 2006

The 2006 Huskers were dominant from start to finish, going 33-1 en route to winning the school's third national title, this one in Omaha. The Huskers were ranked No. 1 all season, becoming only the third team in NCAA history to go wire to wire.

NATIONAL CHAMPION 2015

The final four returned to Omaha in 2015, and the Huskers were victorious in their home state once again, sweeping Texas in the title match to capture the program's fourth NCAA title. NU finished 32-4, winning its final 16 matches.

NATIONAL CHAMPION 2017

The Huskers won an unexpected second NCAA crown in three years with a 3-1 win over Florida in front of a mostly-red NCAA-record crowd of 18,516 in Kansas City. NU joined Penn State and Stanford as the only schools to win five or more NCAA titles.

CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

Nebraska volleyball has a rich tradition, including five NCAA Championships, 34 conference championships, 87 AVCA All-Americans, 129 all-conference selections and eight Olympians. Perhaps most impressively, the Huskers have sold out 234 consecutive regular-season home matches, a streak that dates back to 2001.

In 2017, the Huskers led the nation in attendance for the fifth straight year since moving into the beautifully renovated Bob Devaney Sports Center. Nebraska fans set an NCAA-attendance record with 8,210 fans per match in 2016, and the Huskers' sellout streak of 234 matches is an NCAA women's record.

Nebraska has ranked in the top three nationally in attendance every season for more than two decades. The Huskers also own two of the five longest home winning streaks in NCAA volleyball history.

"It's the greatest place to play volleyball in the country, probably the world. It's very overwhelming and awe-inspiring. To walk onto that floor and hear that crowd is something I'll never forget."

Nebraska has built a reputation as one of the most prestigious volleyball programs in the country. The Huskers have consistently developed student-athletes into the world's best volleyball players, which has made Nebraska a haven for the game's premier setters. In the last 34 seasons, Nebraska has produced 22 All-Americans at the sport's toughest position.

MIDDLE BLOCKERS

Nebraska has enjoyed a tradition of success at the middle blocker position. Since Terri Kanouse captured All-America honors in 1980, Husker middle blockers have combined for 25 All-America certificates, including Honda Award winner Karen Dahlgren and AVCA National Player of the Year and U.S. Olympian Allison Weston.

Under Coach John Cook, Nebraska's middle blockers have annually been one of the nation's top units. Over the last 18 seasons, the Huskers have led the nation in blocks five times. With Cook at the helm, Nebraska middle blockers have combined for 13 AVCA All-America awards and won three national individual blocking titles.

OUTSIDE HITTERS

Outside hitters have become household names at Nebraska. Sarah Pavan, Jordan Larson, Kelsey Robinson, Kadie Rolfzen, Christina Houghtelling, Jennifer Saleaumua, Nancy Metcalf, Laura Pilakowski, Tara Mueller, Lindsey Licht, Hannah Werth, Gina Mancuso and Lisa Reitsma have dominated the college landscape.

Outside hitters have flourished at Nebraska, earning 38 All-America awards, including AVCA National Players of the Year Christina Houghtelling (2005) and Sarah Pavan (2006).

In 2017, Mikaela Foecke and Annika Albrecht were both AVCA All-Americans for the first time in their careers. Albrecht went from a walk-on to an All-American in her four years at Nebraska. NU's outside hitters are the most versatile players in the nation. Werth (2010), Larson (2006, 2008), Houghtelling (2007) and Saleaumua (2004, 2005) were all conference defensive players of the year.

HUSKERS IN THE PROS

WORLD CHAMPIONS AND OLYMPIANS

Led by three former Huskers, the U.S. National Team won its first major gold medal at the 2014 FIVB World Championship with a 3-1 win over China in Milan, Italy.

Outside hitters Jordan Larson (left), Kelsey Robinson (right) and libero Kayla Banwarth (middle) helped the U.S. defeat two-time defending World champion Russia and two-time defending Olympic champion Brazil on the way to the finals. The Husker trio was also named to the Olympic roster for the 2016 Olympics in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. Nebraska's three selections were more than any school. Former Husker Sarah Pavan competed for Canada in beach volleyball as well. The U.S. Women's National Team earned the bronze medal, the second-ever medal for the U.S. at the Olympics.

In 2017, Justine Wong-Orantes, Larson and Robinson (bottom left) were part of the U.S. team that won the inaugural FIVB League of Nations title.

Nebraska features one of the most well-trained and highly skilled athletic medicine staffs in the country. Under the guidance of Director of Athletic Medicine Dr. Lonnie Albers and Head Athletic Trainer and Physical Therapist Jerry Weber (pictured, bottom), the 2018-19 Nebraska athletic medicine staff consists of five physicians, 13 full-time athletic trainers, eight graduate assistant athletic trainers, two full-time in-house athletic psychologists and sports psychiatry consultants who work directly with student-athletes.

Nebraska's medical facilities have long been among the nation's best, and NU's athletic medicine center within the Tom and Nancy Osborne Athletic Complex will keep the Huskers on the front line of technology for decades to come. In addition to Nebraska's North Stadium facility, Haymarket Park, the Bob Devaney Sports Center, Pinnacle Bank Arena and the Nebraska Soccer and Tennis Complex all feature athletic medicine areas. The Devaney Center's Athletic Medicine facility underwent an extensive expansion as part of the Hendricks Training Complex addition in 2011.

Nebraska uses advanced equipment, including two anti-gravity treadmills (pictured, top) to help athletes recondition after injuries. Nebraska's Athletic Medicine Center also features a hydrotherapy area that includes a three-level laned pool, as well as hot and cold plunge tanks (pictured, middle). The Hydroworx 1000 Treadmill Pool is equipped with two cameras underwater for evaluation and assessment.

HUSKER POWER

HUSKER POWER

The model strength and conditioning program in the nation, Husker Power plays a major role in the continuing success of Nebraska athletics. Nebraska's strength program was the first in the nation.

Nebraska's strength training facilities have set the standard in collegiate athletics since the early 1970s. The Ndamukong Suh Strength and Conditioning Center in the Osborne Athletic Complex and Nebraska's impressive new weight room at the Hendricks Training Complex have taken Husker Power to a whole new level in recent years.

The University of Nebraska volleyball strength and conditioning coach is dedicated to making each student-athlete the best all-around volleyball player she can become. The goal of the strength coach is to help the volleyball player reach her full potential on the court. With the year-round lifting and conditioning program, we strive to reduce injuries and at the same time increase performance.

Brian Kmitta is in his fifth year as head strength coach for the volleyball program. The strength and conditioning program's goal is to produce strength, speed, power and discipline. Making sure the student-athletes are strong, healthy and competitive is the number one priority. Another goal is to build team dynamics, leadership and mental toughness through different conditioning drills.

STUDENT-ATHLETE EXPERIENCE

Nebraska Athletics is one of the few self-sustaining athletic programs in the country. In 2016-17, Nebraska was one of only two collegiate programs in the nation to attract nearly 1.3 million fans across its seven major team sports through the doors of its world-class facilities. This incredible interest and support enables Nebraska Athletics to invest in the student-athlete experience, as well as the overall game-day experience.

Nebraska is a leader in providing all the resources and support necessary for student-athletes to become successful in academics, athletics and life. Nebraska will continue to strategically plan for avenues to strengthen the resources to support more than 600 Husker student-athletes across 24 sports.

UNMATCHED SUPPORT

In August of 2014, the NCAA Division I Board of Directors restructured the way member institutions and conferences, including the Big Ten, govern themselves. Nebraska has a great history and tradition of providing unmatched benefits and support to student-athletes. However, this change in governance, and subsequent legislation, paved the way for Nebraska to enhance the benefits and experiences for student-athletes. A few examples of these enhanced benefits are:

- All scholarship student-athletes have their scholarship calculated based on the full cost of attendance.
- Each student-athlete is offered a free Apple MacBook Air laptop computer to enhance their learning opportunities.
- Nebraska has increased resources and support in all academic and performance related areas including but not limited to Academic Services, Life Skills, Athletic Medicine, Athletic Training, Strength and Conditioning, Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory, Nutrition and Sports Analytics.
- As part of Nebraska's innovative Post-Eligibility Opportunity (PEO) program, where every student-athlete graduate who has exhausted his or her athletic eligibility has the opportunity to pursue (with Nebraska support) an internship, participate in a study abroad program or attend graduate school within the University of Nebraska system.

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Seven academic counselors, three learning specialists and two assistant academic counselors are in place to monitor daily academic progress, receive consistent course feedback, assist with the advising/registration process and monitor eligibility and progress toward graduation.

TUTORIAL SUPPORT

A tremendous resource for all academic abilities, unlimited tutorial support from approximately 75-100 tutors on staff is available from day one up to college graduation in all subject areas. The tutorial program is certified as a model tutoring program by the College Reading and Learning Association.

STUDY HALL

Nebraska's study hall program is housed in the D.J. Sokol Enrichment Center within the Student Life Complex. Student-athletes attend a supervised, flex-time study hall that features day, evening and weekend hours. Student-athletes are required to complete a specific number of study hours each week as determined by their academic counselor and/or coach. Additional performance-based or tutor-based study hall also may be determined by the academic counselor.

MENTORING

Academic support staff serve as mentors to all incoming student-athletes and select returning student-athletes. The student-athletes meet with their mentor weekly to develop time management skills, gather and report academic progress information and discuss academic success strategies.

EDUCATIONAL ASSESSMENTS

Assessments are administered upon the request of the student-athlete, academic counselor, or coach. Learning specialists are available to administer and score informal assessments, which include a reading comprehension and a writing assessment. When more in-depth assessments are necessary, referrals are made to a consulting psychologist who conducts the assessments. If it is determined a student-athlete has a learning disability or another medical condition that impedes the student from reaching their academic potential, appropriate accommodations are implemented by the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ORIENTATION

Each new student-athlete attends an orientation at the beginning of their academic career. Student-athletes are introduced to staff, faculty, administrators, and a variety of resources that help facilitate the transition into college while enhancing awareness of support services in the Athletic Department and across campus.

PERSONAL COUNSELING

Student-athletes will find a supportive and caring environment at Nebraska. Transitional issues, stress management, time management, academic focus and problem resolution are all addressed in a proactive manner throughout the year. If necessary, counseling referrals are also made to designated practitioners.

COMPUTER RESOURCES

The Herman Student Life Complex has two computer labs available for student-athletes. The Scott Technology Center features two tech tables for use on group computer projects and group study sessions. New laptops are provided to all student-athletes for use during their academic career at Nebraska.

LIFE SKILLS

ALLIE HAVERS ON THE NO FILTER TRIP

MIKAELA FOECKE AT NETWORKING NIGHT

JOHN COOK AT SPORTSMANSHIP 4 LIFE

The Life Skills team organizes several orientations aimed at acclimating student-athletes to college life. Additionally, all incoming student-athletes attend the fall semester Husker Life Seminar. This interactive class promotes responsible decision-making, personal brand, financial literacy, leadership, involvement and service.

INDIVIDUAL MEETINGS

Every Nebraska student-athlete is assigned a Life Skills staff member who will assist with personal and career development. The meetings help each student-athlete identify a career focus and implement a plan to increase career marketability.

CAREER COMMITMENT & NETWORKING

Nebraska Life Skills organizes an annual Student-Athlete Career Fair Networking Night and other career events aimed at connecting Huskers with companies desiring competitive, hard-working, accountable candidates. Athlete Network and Husker Hire Link provide opportunities to explore career opportunities across the country.

COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Nebraska student-athletes readily accept the role-model challenge, collectively giving more than 8,000 hours annually to impact thousands across the state of Nebraska. Outreach events include but are not limited to hospital visits, mentoring, school assemblies, statewide rallies, Make-A-Wish, School is Cool and Husker Heroes.

LEADERSHIP

Nebraska Life Skills provides student-athletes with countless opportunities to enhance leadership skills while distinguishing themselves from the competition. Student-athletes can be members of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, Uplifting Athletes Chapter or Inner Circle. UNL offers more than 600 recognized student organizations allowing athletes to collaborate with other campus leaders for common goals. Nebraska Life Skills funds and coordinates an annual one-week service abroad trip that allows 20 student-athletes to work together toward a common goal while enriching cultural competencies.

RECOGNITION

In 2017-18, 11 Nebraska volleyball student-athletes were named to the Tom Osborne Citizenship team for completing a minimum of six service projects in the calendar year. A host of other recognition opportunities at the institutional, Big Ten and NCAA levels that all reflect the high ideals, character and servant leadership nurtured through community involvement also are available.

POST-ELIGIBILITY OPPORTUNITIES

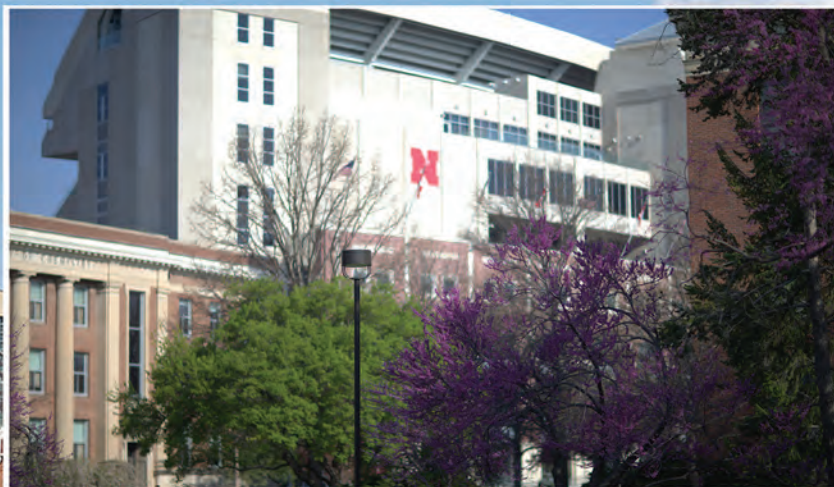

Since 2015, all student-athletes who letter and graduate will have a three-year window to benefit from one of three post-eligibility opportunities each valued at $7,500. Upon completion of required seminars, graduates can either study abroad, complete an internship or begin graduate school within the University of Nebraska system.

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION

The Life Skills program also is responsible for all Diversity and Inclusion initiatives for Husker Athletics. Since 2016, the Diversity and Inclusion Summit has reached all student-athletes and staff with programming emphasizing respect, acceptance and unity. Numerous other special events are coordinated in collaboration with campus departments highlighting the diversity within Husker Nation.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

The University of Nebraska was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration. Nebraska, which joined the Big Ten Conference in 2011, is a member of the Big Ten Academic Alliance, a consortium of Big Ten universities and the University of Chicago, which has generated unique opportunities for students and faculty by sharing expertise, leveraging resources and collaborating on programs.

BIG TEN ACADEMIC ALLIANCE

As a member of the Big Ten, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL) is a member of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, which is the academic consortium of the universities in the Big Ten Conference. The consortium was renamed on June 29, 2016. The BTAA includes all 14 Big Ten Institutions and the University of Chicago. The Big Ten Academic Alliances and the institutions together have annual research expenditures topping $10.2 billion — more than the Ivy League and the University of California System combined — and they educate a total of nearly 600,000 students with approximately 50,000 full-time faculty members.
